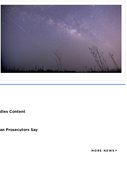
NATIONAL SECURITY

'Unmasking' 101: The Next Chapter In The Trump-Russia Imbroglio

Former intelligence and counter-intelligence officials discuss the Trump-Russia story caused by a major focus on U.S. intelligence — and what Republicans call its abuse.

Listen · 4:57 | Queue



THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Lights Off, Blankets Out: Lyrid Meteor Shower Peaks Tonight

Stargazers Monday night and before dawn on Saturday should be rewarded by watching the streaks of space debris — leftover particles from a comet that was last seen in 1861.

LATEST FROM NPR NEWS

U.S., Uganda Call Off Search For Infamous Warlord Joseph Kony

Murder Video Again Raises Questions About How Facebook Handles Content

Hawaii Tells Jeff Sessions: 'Have Some Respect'

Soccer Team Bus Bombing Was Part Of Stock Option Plot, German Prosecutors Say

Cuba Gooding, Sr., Star Of The Main Ingredient, Dies At 72

MORE NEWS ▾

LATEST NEWSCAST

Listen · Live

CONNECT WITH NPR

Podcast Directory

Email Newsletters

NPR on Facebook

Uniqo on Twitter

LAW

Justice Department Warns 'Sanctuary Cities,' With Grant Money At Risk

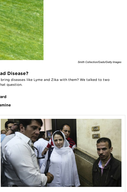
Officials in sanctuary jurisdictions are demanding proof that cities receiving million-dollar law enforcement grants are complying with federal immigration law.

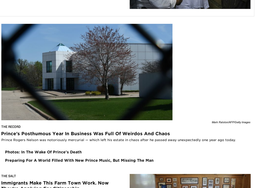
Hawaii Tells Attorney General Jeff Sessions: 'Have Some Respect'

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Juicero CEO Says Luxury Juicer Is 'Much More' Than Juice; Internet Is Unimpressed

The company says its $400 machine cold-presses juice out of packaged, sold via subscription. Then a Bloomberg News video showed people didn't actually need the press to get juice from the packets.





Smith Collection/Gado/Getty Images

DEATH AND DISEASE

Will Climate Change Help Ticks And Mosquitoes Spread Disease?

The disease-spreading bugs are creeping north in the states. But will they bring diseases like Lyme and Zika with them? We talked to two scientists who have devoted a major chunk of their careers to answering that question.

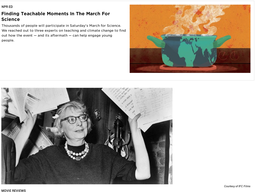
MAP: Find Out What New Viruses Are Emerging In Your Backyard

#CuriousGeo: Submit A Question About World Hunger And Famine

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Egyptian-American Aid Worker, Released From Cairo Jail, Returns To U.S.

Aya Hijazi and her Egyptian husband were accused of child abuse, but human rights groups called the charges specious and prosecutors offered no proof. The couple were jailed for nearly three years.



Mark Ralston/AFP/Getty Images

THE REGIONS

Prince's Posthumous Year In Business Was Full Of Weirdos And Chaos

Prince Rogers Nelson was notoriously mercurial — which left his estate in chaos after he passed away unexpectedly one year ago today.

Photos: In The Wake Of Prince's Death

Preparing For A World Filled With New Prince Music, But Missing The Man

THE SALT

Immigrants Make This Farm Town Work. Now They're Angling For Citizenship

HARVEST PUBLIC MEDIA

Nearly half of farm workers in Morgan County, Colo., for its plentiful, if grueling, jobs in agriculture. Now, fears about changes to immigration policy under Trump are prompting many to act.

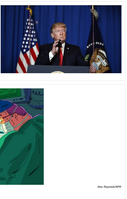
Maine's Immigrants Boost Workforce Of Whitest, Oldest State In U.S.

Will Trump's Tough Talk On Immigration Cause A Farm Labor Shortage?

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

U.K. May Have 24 Hours Without Coal Power

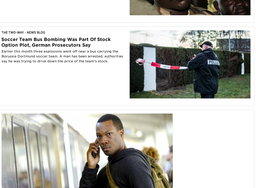
The country's last coal-fired generator on Friday is set to stay up to a full day without burning coal for power, to produce power. Britain plans to eliminate the energy source by 2025.



APPLES

Finding Teachable Moments In The March For Science

Thousands of people will participate in Saturday's March for Science. We reached out to three experts on teaching and climate change to find out how the event — and its aftermath — can help engage young people.



Courtesy of FC Films

MOVIE REVIEWS

City Planning As A Contact Sport In 'Citizen Jane: Battle For The City'

Citizen Jane: Battle for the City is a documentary about Jane Jacobs, whose 1961 book The Death and Life of Great American Cities changed urban planning.

Listen · 4:17 | Queue

'Jeremiah Tower': A Reclusive Celebrity Chef, Under Glass

Movie Reviews: 'The Promise,' 'Free Fire' And More

STORYCORPS

Teenager Opens Up To Her Dad About Her Experiences With Racism

Calvin Burns' daughter, Drayshon Bellamy, 15, is usually reticent. At StoryCorps, she tells him about dealing with racism at her high school. Burns says he faced similar issues when he was growing up.

Listen · 2:50 | Queue

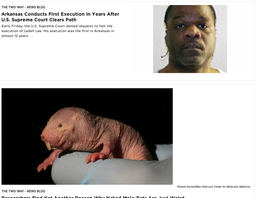
POLITICS

Journalist Describes The Loneliness And Leakiness Of Trump's White House

FRESH AIR

As President Trump approaches his 100th day in office, White House correspondent Jonathan Karl of ABC News and New York Times says "the magnitude of the job is sinking in for him."

Listen · 54:18 | Queue



Alex Mizyrkin/NPR

THE SALT

Is It Safe To Eat Moldy Bread?

Yes, say food safety experts. Molds can easily penetrate deep into a soft food, like bread. But you can salvage other foods with tougher surfaces, like cabbages, carrots and hard cheeses.

SHOTS · HEALTH NEWS

GOP Plan To Trim Insurance Benefits Might Not Tame Premiums

KAISER HEALTH NEWS

House Republicans are taking another stab at replacing the Affordable Care Act. But industry analysts say cutting required coverage won't need their goal of lowering premiums for individual insurance.

New GOP Health Proposal Could Ditch Protections For People Who Are Sick

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

U.S., Uganda Call Off Search For Infamous Warlord Joseph Kony

The U.S. Government has now officially ended the nine-year-long search for the Lord's Resistance Army, Uganda followed suit this week. The U.S. says Kony's followers have shrunk to fewer than 100 people.

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Soccer Team Bus Bombing Was Part Of Stock Option Plot, German Prosecutors Say

Carried this month three suspicious-looking stock options worth a quarter million dollars in the Borussia Dortmund soccer team. A man has been arrested, authorities say he was trying to drive down the price of the team's stock.

Guy O'Donnell/TCF

PERFORMING ARTS

From D.C. Theater To '24': The Rise Of Actor Corey Hawkins

Hawkins auditioned for the first acting gig at the Kennedy Center when he was 3 years old. Now he's the star of the action drama series 24: Legacy, and he's also appearing in a Broadway play.

Listen · 4:12 | Queue

POLITICS

Bernie Sanders Defends Campaigning For Anti-Abortion Rights Democrat

Sanders endorsed Heath Mello for mayor of Omaha, Neb., and tells NPR, "In some conservative states there will be candidates that are popular candidates who may not agree with me on every issue."

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Arkansas Conducts First Execution In Years After U.S. Supreme Court Clears Path

Early Friday the U.S. Supreme Court denied requests to halt the execution of Ledell Lee. His execution was the first in Arkansas in almost 12 years.

Roland Zucchetti/Bon Secours Center for Molecular Medicine

THE TWO WAY · NEWS BLOG

Researchers Find Yet Another Reason Why Naked Mole-Rats Are Just Weird

Unlike most mammals, naked mole-rats are cold-blooded rodents have proven capable of surviving total oxygen deprivation. Their odd biology allows them to run on an alternative fuel.

more stories

news

arts & life

music

back to top

© 2017 npr