What's News

Trump's Advisers Made Big Money, Disclosures Show

Four of Mr. Trump's top advisers—Steve Bannon, Kellyanne Conway, Stephen Miller, Andrew Puzder—made tens of thousands of dollars in the year after they left the Trump administration, financial disclosures show. ▶ Trump Backs Top Aides in Fraud Probe

In Gorsuch Fight, Wider Political Battles Play Out

The confirmation battle between President Donald Trump and Democrats in the Senate is a proxy for other political battles between the country's divided parties. ▶ Live

Suspects Charged in Atlanta Highway Massacre Plot

Authorities charged 19 people with a racially motivated degree-criminal attempt and two others with criminal conspiracy in connection with the fire and resulting collapse of a stretch of I-85. ▶ Video

Ukraine's Zelenskyy Addresses Congress

Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy has called the country's top military commander to Kyiv and has detained suspects in an investigation into a plot to assassinate him, officials say, ahead of an operation with planned for Saturday morning.

In Gorsuch Fight, Wider Political Battles Play Out

The confirmation battle between President Donald Trump and Democrats in the Senate is a proxy for other political battles between the country's divided parties. ▶ Live

Suspects Charged in Atlanta Highway Massacre Plot

Authorities charged 19 people with a racially motivated degree-criminal attempt and two others with criminal conspiracy in connection with the fire and resulting collapse of a stretch of I-85. ▶ Video

Ukraine's Zelenskyy Addresses Congress

Ukraine President Volodymyr Zelenskyy has called the country's top military commander to Kyiv and has detained suspects in an investigation into a plot to assassinate him, officials say, ahead of an operation with planned for Saturday morning.