FBI Director Comey says classified Clinton emails were forwarded to Anthony Weiner

Emails from Hillary Clinton containing classified information were forwarded to former congressman Anthony Weiner, the director of the FBI testified as he defended his handling of politically sensitive probes surrounding the 2016 presidential race. Weiner, a New York Democrat, was married to a top aide to Clinton, Huma Abedin.

Republicans seeking support for health-care plan push to address preexisting conditions

Rep. Fred Upton, who came out against the earlier revision on Tuesday, is the author of the latest amendment that provides more financial assistance for people with preexisting conditions. The language is expected to be circulated among House Republicans as leaders try to whip enough support for a vote this week on a bill to repeal and replace big parts of Obamacare.

Wonkblog: The simple reason Republicans are stuck with Obamacare

If more than 22 House Republicans vote “no,” the latest version of the health-care reform bill will fail. Here’s where things stand:

Pulitzer Prize-winning reporting: Uncovering Trump

In February 2016, presidential candidate Donald Trump promised $6 million in donations, including $1 million from his own pocket, to charities along his campaign trail. Months later, he had donated far less than he pledged. Post reporter David A. Fahrenthold went in search of the missing money and found a bigger story than he ever expected.
