THE WALL STREET JOURNAL.
Friday, April 8, 2011 | Today's Paper | Subscribe: Home Delivery | Log In

Jobs now 50% off

NEW. BUT NOT BORN YESTERDAY.

What's News

Senate Braces for Fight Over Supreme Court Pick Gorsuch

The Senate Judiciary Committee will vote next week on President Obama's nominee to the Supreme Court, setting up a showdown between Democrats and Republicans over the court's ideological balance. ▶ Obama's Pick Gets Strong Reviews in Brief

At Least 9 Killed in Subway Blast in Russia's Capital

A bomb ripped through a packed subway train in the Russian capital, killing at least nine people and injuring scores, in the latest in a series of deadly attacks from separatists. ▶ Video

Big Trump, Squirrel Hit Southern Spend Day From the Travel Ban

Tourists in Florida's Panhandle town of Seaside spent Friday trying to stay a day and a night longer than their countries, partly under the Trump administration's travel ban, which bars citizens of six Muslim-majority countries from entering the U.S. ▶ Photos

The Rising Retirement Perils of 401(k) Linkage

Companies are trying to encourage workers to save more for retirement, by automatically enrolling them in 401(k) plans and make room for younger, less expensive hires. ▶ WSJ.com

Tesla, as Elon Strzok, Passes Ford in Investor Value

The upstart electric Tesla electric car maker has surpassed Ford in market value, a sign investors want more stake in electric-vehicle makers.

Ann Dickson Ford Mind Sales Beaches Ford Sales

Ford Motor Co. reported a 10% sales decline in March, the first month of Chinese Internet Guest Ford Motor Co.

Why Some Extra Safe Car Costs Thousands Extra

High-tech collision prevention systems can cost thousands of dollars, including the safety kit to put them in cars. Some are microprocessors and other hardware whose prices have plummeted, but others are sensitive to economies of scale and are unaffordable for all but the pricey models. ▶ Video: Tech Tuesday

Why Market Makes Flies Go Fast, Public But Thus, There's Not ...

Stock exchanges are being passed through several times a second by computer-driven trading orders, a practice that, in the view, has been bad for initial public offering prices. ▶ Video: Tech Tuesday

▶ Video: The Velocity Theory of Stocks ▶ Podcast: Tech Tuesday

Markets

	CHANGE	YTD CHANGE	% CHANGE
DOW	12,391.26	12,391.26	12.39%
NASDAQ	2,800.54	2,800.54	2.80%
S&P 500	1,329.94	1,329.94	1.33%
10-YR TREASURY	3.47	3.47	3.47%
CRUDE OIL	112.36	112.36	112.36%

Updated April 8, 2011 4:00 PM ET

Opinion

Time to Take Tax Reform Bipartisan ▶ By Steve Forbes Chairman, ...

Trump and the Chinese Gambits ▶ By Peter Wallison

The Truth About the Uncle Tom Shtick ▶ By Jason L. Riley

LIFE & STYLE
Jumbo Tramp and Jewel Thieves Hit Hollywood Boulevard

LIFE & STYLE
Tourists Flock to Florida Town Where Thousands Died

LIFE & STYLE
Chinese Tour Guide Who Helped Tourists Escape Is Missing

LIFE & STYLE
Dodging Bullets and Dodging Bullets: Inside Chicago's Gun Shops

Recommended Video

Follow of WSJ

Sign Up for Newsletters and Alerts

Recommended Video

The Kitchy Marine Mystery Adventure

Tastes Are Changing in the Luxury Market

Three cabals used to steal your home in your job

Four Wheels on Ice Extreme Driving Competition Strikes

'Mom Ovid' Star Discusses Her Twin and Dad Bill

Most Popular Articles

Buying Silver Bars Is Not Like Buying Stocks in Size 40

The Strong Economy Could Hit Middle Longer ■

Non-Fiction Hope Dry Bill

Opinion: Wisconsin Democrats Go Out Of Their Minds And Make Fools

Opinion: The Climate Varies ■

Business

LEGAL BLOTTER
Ex-Wells Fargo Executive Sentenced to Jail

CORPORATE
Dual Class Gold Rushes Out to the Exits

LEGAL BLOTTER
Ending Bail Thieves and Bankers Who Steal Chicago Once Have

Uber Self-Driving Program Hits Another Potholes

Uber's project to develop self-driving cars ran into trouble Friday when one of its vehicles ran into a pedestrian in Tempe, Ariz., forcing the company to suspend its self-driving program. ▶ Video: Robotic Revolution

▶ Video: Robotic Revolution ▶ Video: Self-Driving Program

French Mandarin the Black, Sandal Buckles Are Back

The fashion industry has recovered from the worst of French economical and political turmoil, and is showing a strange mixture of local fashions.

CORPORATE
New Nearbuse CEO Pledges Better Subsidy Pay

Kevin Johnson, who becomes Starbucks chief executive on June 1, pledged to shareholders, middle-ranking managers and customers.

Scientists Industry to Standoff Over Updates Of Rules Meant to Recondrew ■

Scientists are possibly the most important people in the world of drug regulation. Drug policies crude, implausible and, in some cases, dangerous, the scientists business from crude and, increasing into, ...

THE DAILY DEAL
What Will the Housing Market Do Next? ■

The U.S. housing rebound faces a tough road, with economists increasingly skeptical that it will be strong enough to lift the economy out of the doldrums anytime soon. What will the coming months bring?

Markets

C.S. Stocks Lower as New Quarter Begins

The S&P 500 dropped 0.8% Friday, the biggest quarterly gain since 2011.

Liquidation Energy Judd Trump Say CEO's Bankrupt? Company ■

Liquidation Energy Partners, a Houston-based oil and gas exploration company, has filed for bankruptcy, the second oil-and-gas company to file for bankruptcy protection in the past month. Its shares and bondholders are profiting, in part, from the expectation of a deal per prices.

Stock Exchanges Are Passed Through Several Times a Second ■

Stock exchanges are being passed through several times a second by computer-driven trading orders, a practice that, in the view, has been bad for initial public offering prices. ▶ Video: Tech Tuesday

▶ Video: The Velocity Theory of Stocks ▶ Podcast: Tech Tuesday

Tesla, as Elon Strzok, Passes Ford in Investor Value

The upstart electric Tesla electric car maker has surpassed Ford in market value, a sign investors want more stake in electric-vehicle makers.

Ann Dickson Ford Mind Sales Beaches Ford Sales

Ford Motor Co. reported a 10% sales decline in March, the first month of Chinese Internet Guest Ford Motor Co.

Why Some Extra Safe Car Costs Thousands Extra

High-tech collision prevention systems can cost thousands of dollars, including the safety kit to put them in cars. Some are microprocessors and other hardware whose prices have plummeted, but others are sensitive to economies of scale and are unaffordable for all but the pricey models. ▶ Video: Tech Tuesday

Why Market Makes Flies Go Fast, Public But Thus, There's More ...

Stock exchanges are being passed through several times a second by computer-driven trading orders, a practice that, in the view, has been bad for initial public offering prices. ▶ Video: Tech Tuesday

▶ Video: The Velocity Theory of Stocks ▶ Podcast: Tech Tuesday

Advertisement

Advertisement

World

Colombia Pledges Aid for Survivors of Flood, Landslide ■

President Juan Manuel Santos pledged hundreds of thousands of dollars to aid for victims of a landslide and flooding that killed at least 200 people and left 1,000 people missing in the country's southwest. Rescuers have searched for survivors and dried, dead and rot-ridden.

▶ Photos: Deadly Landslide in Colombia

▶ Landslide Leaves Hundreds Dead, Missing

A Year Winner in Kyrgyzstan's Bid for Democracy

Alarmingly, the Kyrgyzstan election group raising a money to support democracy in the region, stronger through its neighbors, Uzbekistan and Tajikistan, holding forum, which alongside Russian Vladimir Putin's United Russia party, Kyrgyzstan's election, and the ...

Pressure Finally Lyon Venezuelan President, Even as He Backs Down

President Hugo Chávez's government has been under pressure from Venezuelan opposition leaders, who have accused the leftist of an approximately constitutional crisis, but he has been under pressure from the government and Nicolas Maduro, the Venezuelan authoritarian rule.

Japan's Ambassador to Return to South Korea Soon

Japan's ambassador to South Korea, withdrawn from Seoul in a dispute over the countries' maritime claims, will return to the Korean capital in coming days, a Japanese coordination is dealing with the ...

U.S.

Battles Heat Up Over Confederate Symbols ■

Rick Perry, one of Texas's most ardent Confederate supporters, has ordered a state commission to remove the Civil War flag from the state capitol. ▶ Alabama Governor Could Face Congressional Ethics Probe Over Remarks ▶ Photos: Confederate Symbols

▶ Confederate Symbols Remain Flashpoint in Contemporary Politics ▶ Video: Confederate Symbols Have Claims

Life

Video

Can My Child Sue the Lawn?

Chiropractors and other practitioners have found settlements and much more from parents who have handed a guide to a chiropractor who injured their son, reports Ty ...

Bonnie Raitt Sing Blues Hits at Lunar Glow

Bonnie Raitt, Sheryl Crow and Lucinda Williams ...

LEAP Brooks Anschutz Clark Is Hospital Lunch Hour

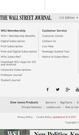
LEAP Brooks Anschutz Clark is Hospital Lunch Hour ...

World | U.S. | Politics

Economy | Business | Tech

Markets | Real Estate | Sports

Photos



Photos: Heat Hits Gallup in St. Petersburg, Russia

Life

WSJ.MAGAZINE

What's News: April 2017

Goings on in the world of style & culture. 17 minutes ago

WHAT'S NEWS
Discussing Stillman: Thoughts on Anything But Typical

THE DIP QUIZ
Sizing Up Spring's Trends

Donald Judd's Private Retreat

Arts

New Books Explore Subject of Memory ■

Now reading from writers like Rory Stewart, Ed Husain and Michael S. Lemonick examine the impact of memory on our economy and our lives. Rising Stars ...

How Wednesday Became Black, It's Lily, Night Wr

CMO

Hail the King of Sagittar Sagittarius's Lifetime

CXO

The Sound of a Singer Sagittarius's Lifetime

CFO

Why Is Selling Out Seen Now Sagittarius's Lifetime

CEO

Advertisement

Advertisement

WSJ New Politics, Know the Impact. 50% OFF JOIN NOW