Under Pressure from Insurers, Trump Continues Obamacare Taxpayer Subsidies

By Eric Pianin

Since he took office two months ago, the Trump administration has been exploring ways to erode Obamacare through executive orders and administrative actions to ensure the government subsidized...

New Cancer Drugs Show Promise – and Sky-High Prices

By DEENA BEASLEY, Reuters

Newer cancer drugs that enlist the body's immune system are improving the odds of survival, but competition between them is not reining in prices that can now top $250,000 a year. The drugs' success...

One of the Best Investments the Government Can Make: Give More Money to the IRS

By Rob Garver

The Internal Revenue Service is the agency of the federal government that most people love to hate. As a result, it has been used as a political punching bag on and off for almost as long as it has...

By Krystina Gustafson, CNBC

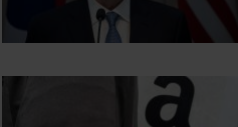

The number of retailers filing for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection is headed toward its highest annual tally since the Great Recession. Nine retailers have filed in just the first three months of...

How Many US Soldiers Are in Iraq? The Pentagon Will No Longer Answer That Question

By Paul Szoldra, Business Insider

The Pentagon is no longer going to disclose how many troops are in Iraq and Syria, a sharp departure from an Obama administration policy that kept the public abreast of increased troop deployments to...

Tax-Free Shopping on Amazon Is Over — With This One Big Exception

By Janna Herron

Amazon is fully ditching what was once considered its biggest advantage: not charging state sales tax. On Saturday, Amazon will begin collecting the tax on purchases made in Hawaii, Idaho, Maine and...
