Wall Street Made Charles Murphy Successful and Rich, but Happiness Eluded Him

After his apparent suicide, friends say the brilliant, commanding, sometimes abrasive banker, who had a ringside seat for some of history's biggest booms and scandals, suffered from depression—and grew despondent maintaining the charmed life he built for his family. 137

How Goldman Sachs Made More Than $1 Billion With Your Credit Score

Three years after Goldman bought TransUnion, the credit-reporting firm had become a data-mining machine, gathering billions of seemingly insignificant tidbits about ordinary Americans that it analyzed and sold to lenders, insurers and others. Goldman has already pocketed nearly $600 million in profit and is poised to make five times its initial investment.
