

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

SHOTS - HEALTH NEWS

Republicans Now Control The Affordable Care Act. Will Your Coverage Change?

KAISER HEALTH NEWS

There are many ways beyond legislative repeal that the Trump administration and congressional Republicans could undo the law also known as Obamacare — starting with sowing uncertainty about what's next.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

How U.S. Health Care Became Big Business

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Dylann Roof Pleads Guilty To State Murder Charges For Charleston Church Attack

Dylann Roof shot dead nine people in the basement of a historically black church in 2015. He has already been sentenced to death on federal hate crimes charges.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

Courtesy of Anne Heston and David Hoffmann

ALL TECH CONSIDERED

Preserving Memories: In Emails To A Toddler, A Window Into Her Parents' Love

TO: Ava / FROM: Dad / SUBJECT: Your very first email ever! / "Hi Ava Beani This is your dad (who is still getting use to that title) emailing you."

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Passenger Forcibly Removed From United Flight, Prompting Outcry

Videos show a man on an overbooked flight wrestled from his seat and dragged down the aisle, to other passengers' horror. United's CEO apologized for having to "re-accommodate these customers."

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

POLITICS

Elections To Replace Some Trump Cabinet Picks Looking Tighter Than Anticipated

Races in Georgia and Kansas to replace GOP lawmakers who joined the Trump administration are surprising activists, pundits and both political parties in an unsettled political environment.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

TELEVISION

'Better Call Saul' Launches Its 3rd Season, Still The Best Drama Series On TV

FRESH AIR

The Broadway-bound David Mamet returns Monday, telling more of the origin story of lawyer Jimmy McGill (aka Saul Goodman/Critic David Blumenthal says the series "more than stands on its own."

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

John Clarke, Who Made Fake News Hilarious, Is Mourned In Australia And New Zealand

The satirist's pitch-perfect portrayal of an Australian senator denying the impact of an oil spill once prompted a Snopes fact-check report.

AP

SCIENCE

Natural Gas Plant Makes A Play For Coal's Market, Using 'Clean' Technology

The idea behind "clean coal" is technology that would capture for reuse most of the carbon dioxide emitted by coal-burning power plants. Entrepreneurs aim to use similar tech to clean natural gas.

Courtesy of BP/Power

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

THE SALT

Oaky, With Notes Of BS: Why Wine Tasting Struggles To Get It On The Nose

Unlike food — which gives us sensory cues like crunch and hot, as well as tasting, say, salty — with wine, it's all about tiny differences in taste and smell. The danger is in getting too poetic.

MOVIES

What's The Issue With Nitrate Film Stock? It's Combustible

KPBS BAO20

The Turner Classic Movie Festival in Hollywood built a booth to project old films on nitrate stock. A fireball was needed. Nitrate can catch on fire and blow up — just one reason it's no longer used.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

SHOTS - HEALTH NEWS

Drugs That Work In Mice Often Fail When Tried In People

Most potential new drugs don't work when tested in people. It's a major disappointment and it drives up the cost of developing new drugs. One big reason is the use of animals in medical research.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

TINY DESK

Sinkane: Tiny Desk Concert

You can hear a great New York jazz band in the rhythms of Sinkane, but you can also hear the influence of Bob Marley and the hypnotic repetition of Sudanese desert sounds.

Shutterstock/Donatello de Niro

more stories

news >

arts & life >

music >

back to top

homepage

news

arts & life

music

programs

about

help

contact

terms of use

privacy

sponsorship choices

text-only

© 2017 npr