

Trump's already making his mark on climate

His policies mean the U.S. could release billions more tons of greenhouse gases into the atmosphere in the coming decades compared with what Barack Obama envisioned.

POLITICO INVESTIGATION

Obama's hidden Iran deal giveaway

President Barack Obama's concessions to Iran went well beyond those cited in his White House rollout of the Iran deal and prisoner swap in January 2016: His administration dropped prosecutions or convictions of a total of 21 men and took other steps that hampered a major U.S. initiative to stop the global spread of nuclear and missile technology, especially to Tehran.
