Trump is caving on border wall funding after showing his base that he tried

While the mainstream media will cover this as another failure, the president's core supporters will not see it that way. They see someone fighting to keep his promises and will give him an "A" for effort.

Meet one of the critics of Trump's wall. He's a Republican. In Texas.

As Democrats try for an anti-Trump wave in next year's midterm elections, break-the-mold Republican Will Hurd is fighting to hold a vast, politically volatile district along the U.S.-Mexico border with a battle plan that includes being one of the harshest GOP critics of the president's push to build a wall along that border.

Pulitzer Prize-winning reporting: Uncovering Trump

In February 2016, presidential candidate Donald Trump promised $6 million in donations, including $1 million from his own pocket, to charities along his campaign trail. Months later, he had donated far less than he pledged. Post reporter David A. Fahrenthold went in search of the missing money and found a bigger story than he ever expected.
