

ON AIR NOW
WHYY

SHOTS - HEALTH NEWS

Home-Based Drug Treatment Program Costs Less And Works

NEW HAMPSHIRE PUBLIC RADIO

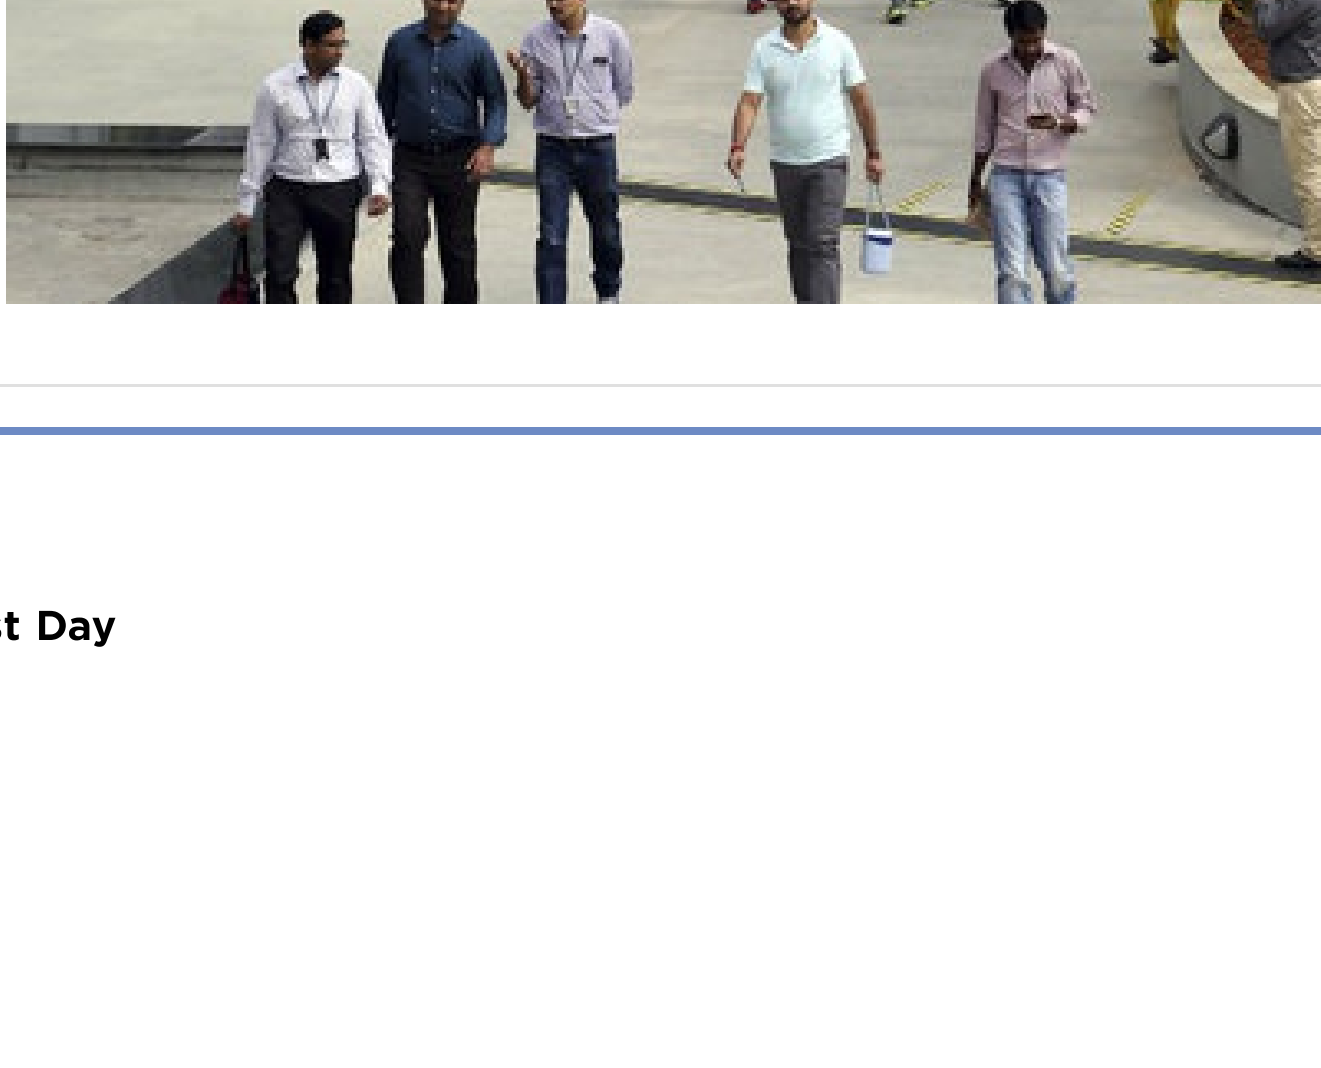

Treating addiction is expensive, and patients often relapse. A new program is offering better results at a price that's lower in the long run — and clients get treatment right at home.

POLITICS

New Trump Order Extends 'Buy American' And 'Hire American' Rules

During a visit to the Snap-on tool company Tuesday, President Trump will sign an executive order designed to reinforce government purchasing policies and discourage the heavy use of guest workers.

LATEST FROM NPR NEWS

Justice Gorsuch Finds His 'Easier' Solution Has Few Takers On 1st Day

Arkansas' Push To Carry Out Executions Hits Another Roadblock

Pence Tells North Korea: 'The Era Of Strategic Patience Is Over'

Atlanta Highway Buckles Dramatically, Injuring A Motorcyclist

Gas Leak At BP Oil Well In Alaska Has Been Stopped

MORE NEWS >

LATEST NEWSCAST

Listen · 5:00

CONNECT WITH NPR

Podcast Directory

Email Newsletters

NPR on Facebook

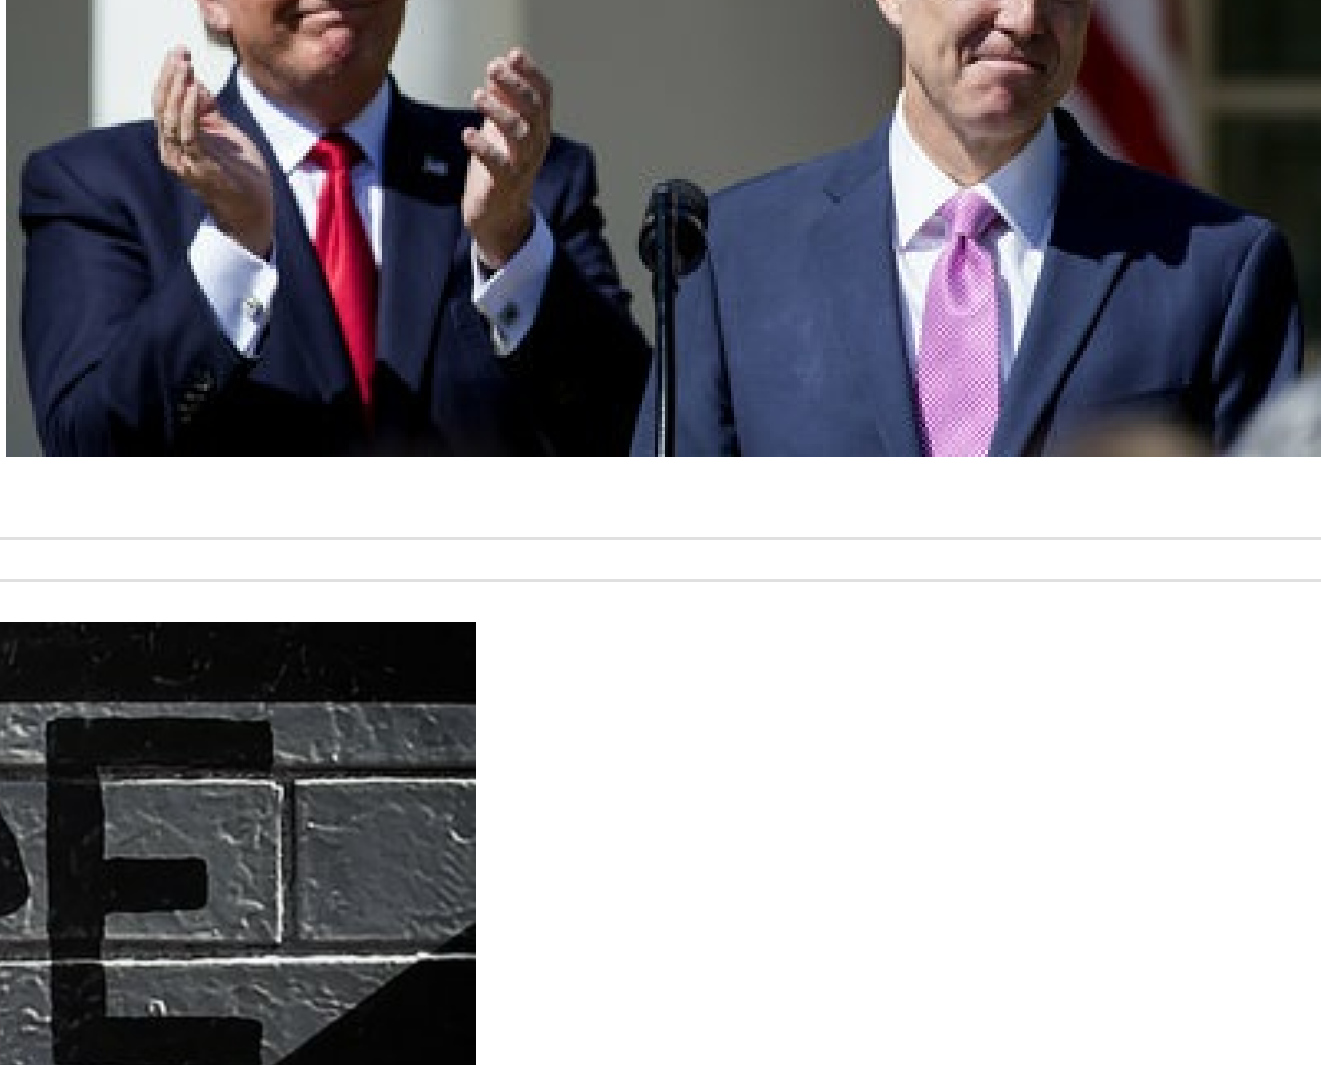

@npr on Twitter

POLITICS

As Trump Inquiries Flood Ethics Office, Director Looks To House For Action

Walter Shaub of the Office of Government Ethics, which lacks enforcement power, says the House Oversight Committee does not seem to be matching the surge of concern about the Trump administration.

Listen · 3:23 Queue

Who Oversees The President's Ethics? Here's Our List

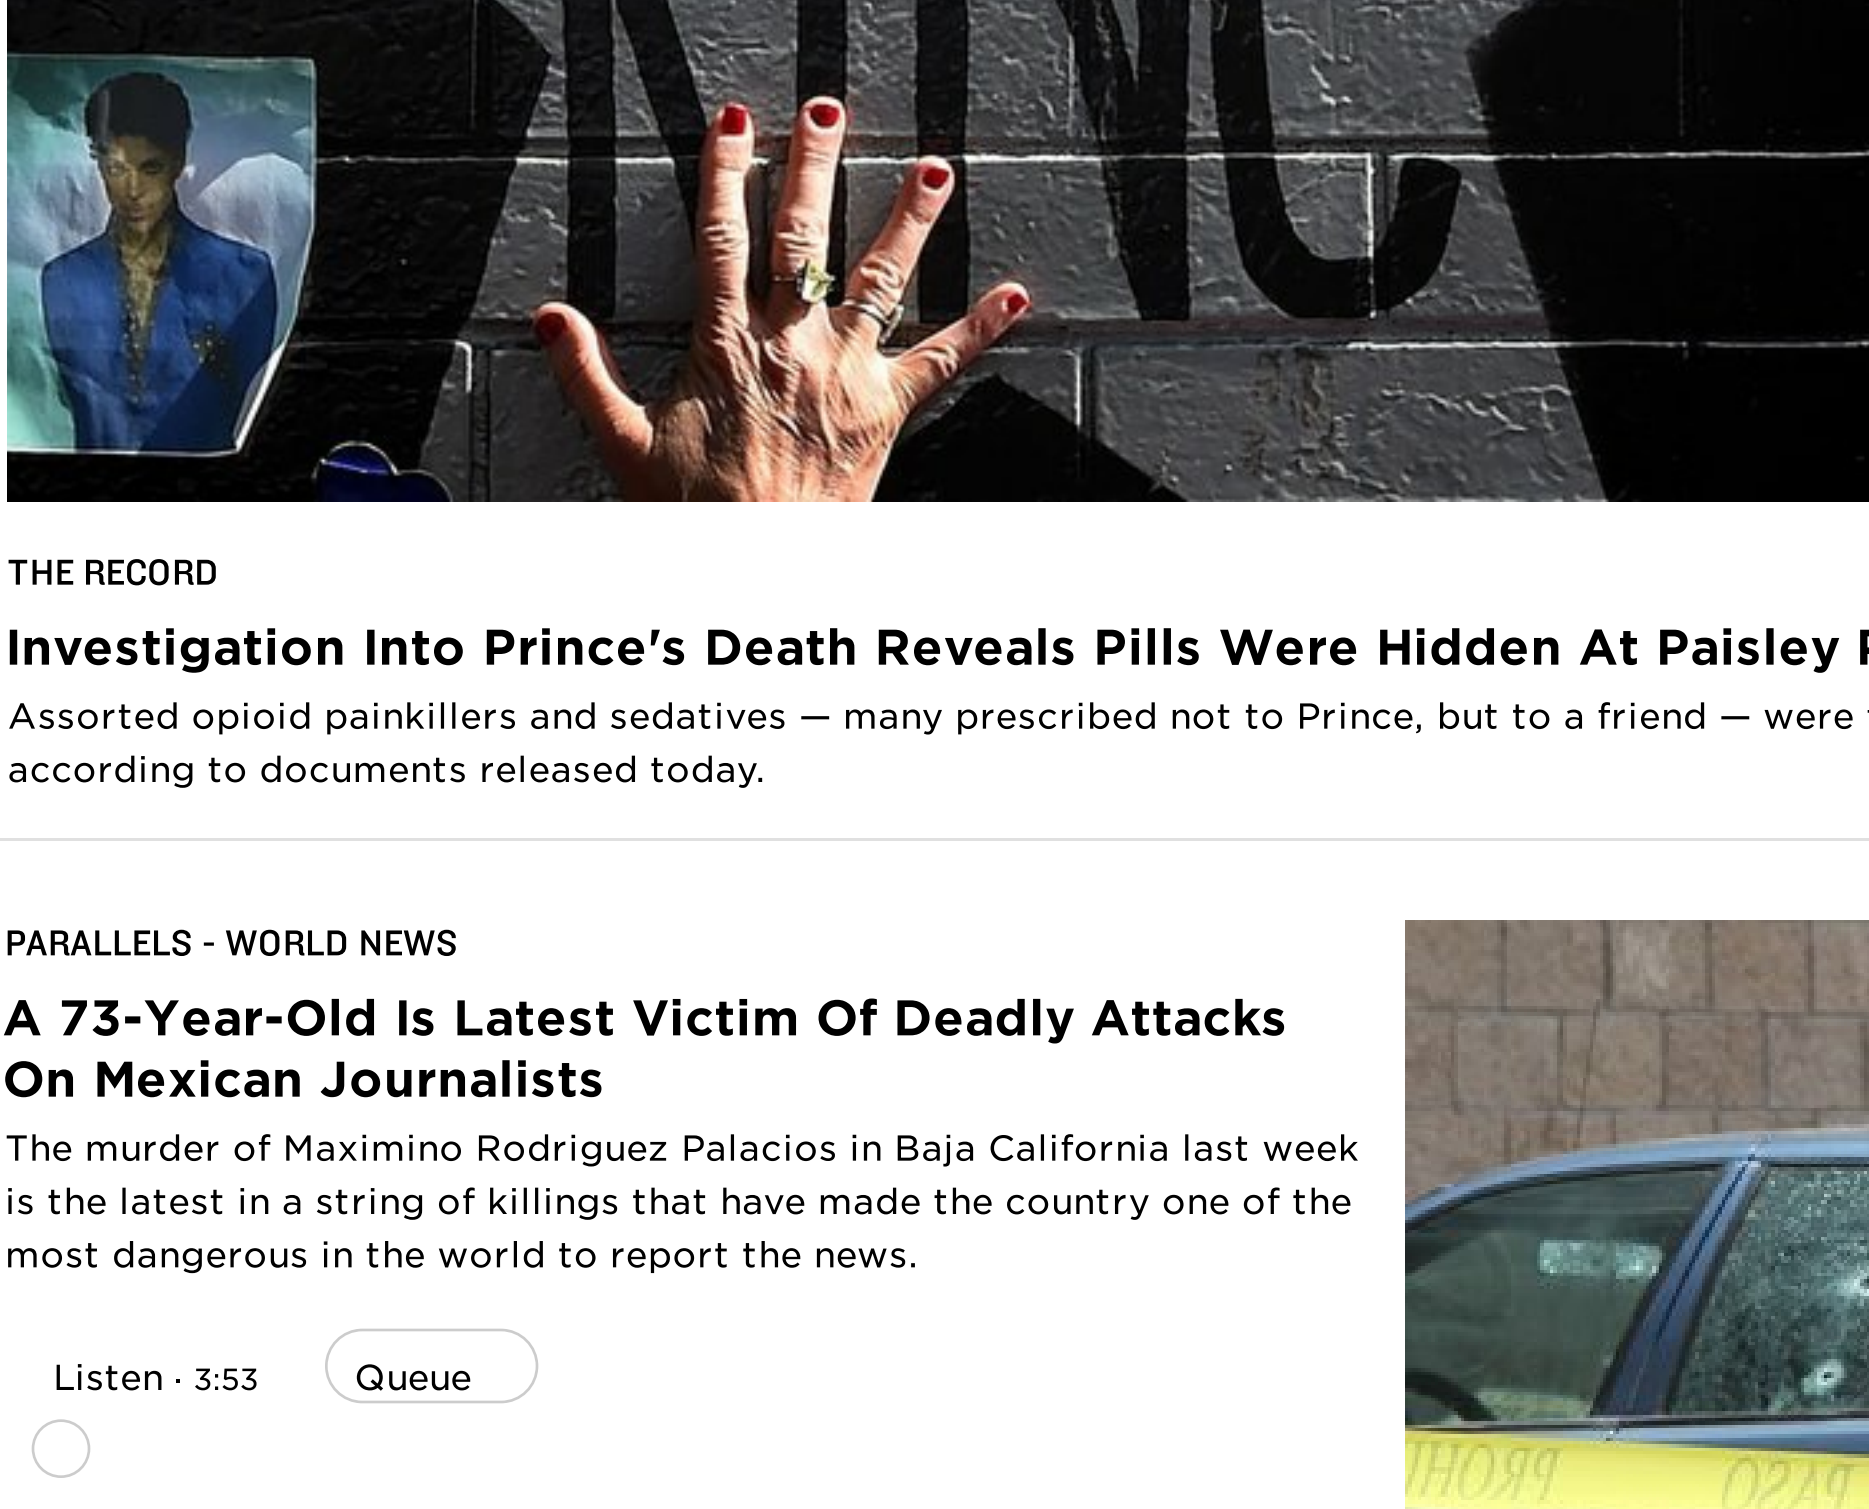

LAW

Justice Gorsuch Finds His 'Easier' Solution Has Few Takers On First Day

Neil Gorsuch looked like a kid on the first day of high school when he made his debut on the U.S. Supreme Court — sitting tall and asking lots of questions.

Listen · 2:44 Queue

THE RECORD

Investigation Into Prince's Death Reveals Pills Were Hidden At Paisley Park

Assorted opioid painkillers and sedatives — many prescribed not to Prince, but to a friend — were found throughout the artist's home, according to documents released today.

Mark Ralston/AP/Getty Images

PARALLELS - WORLD NEWS

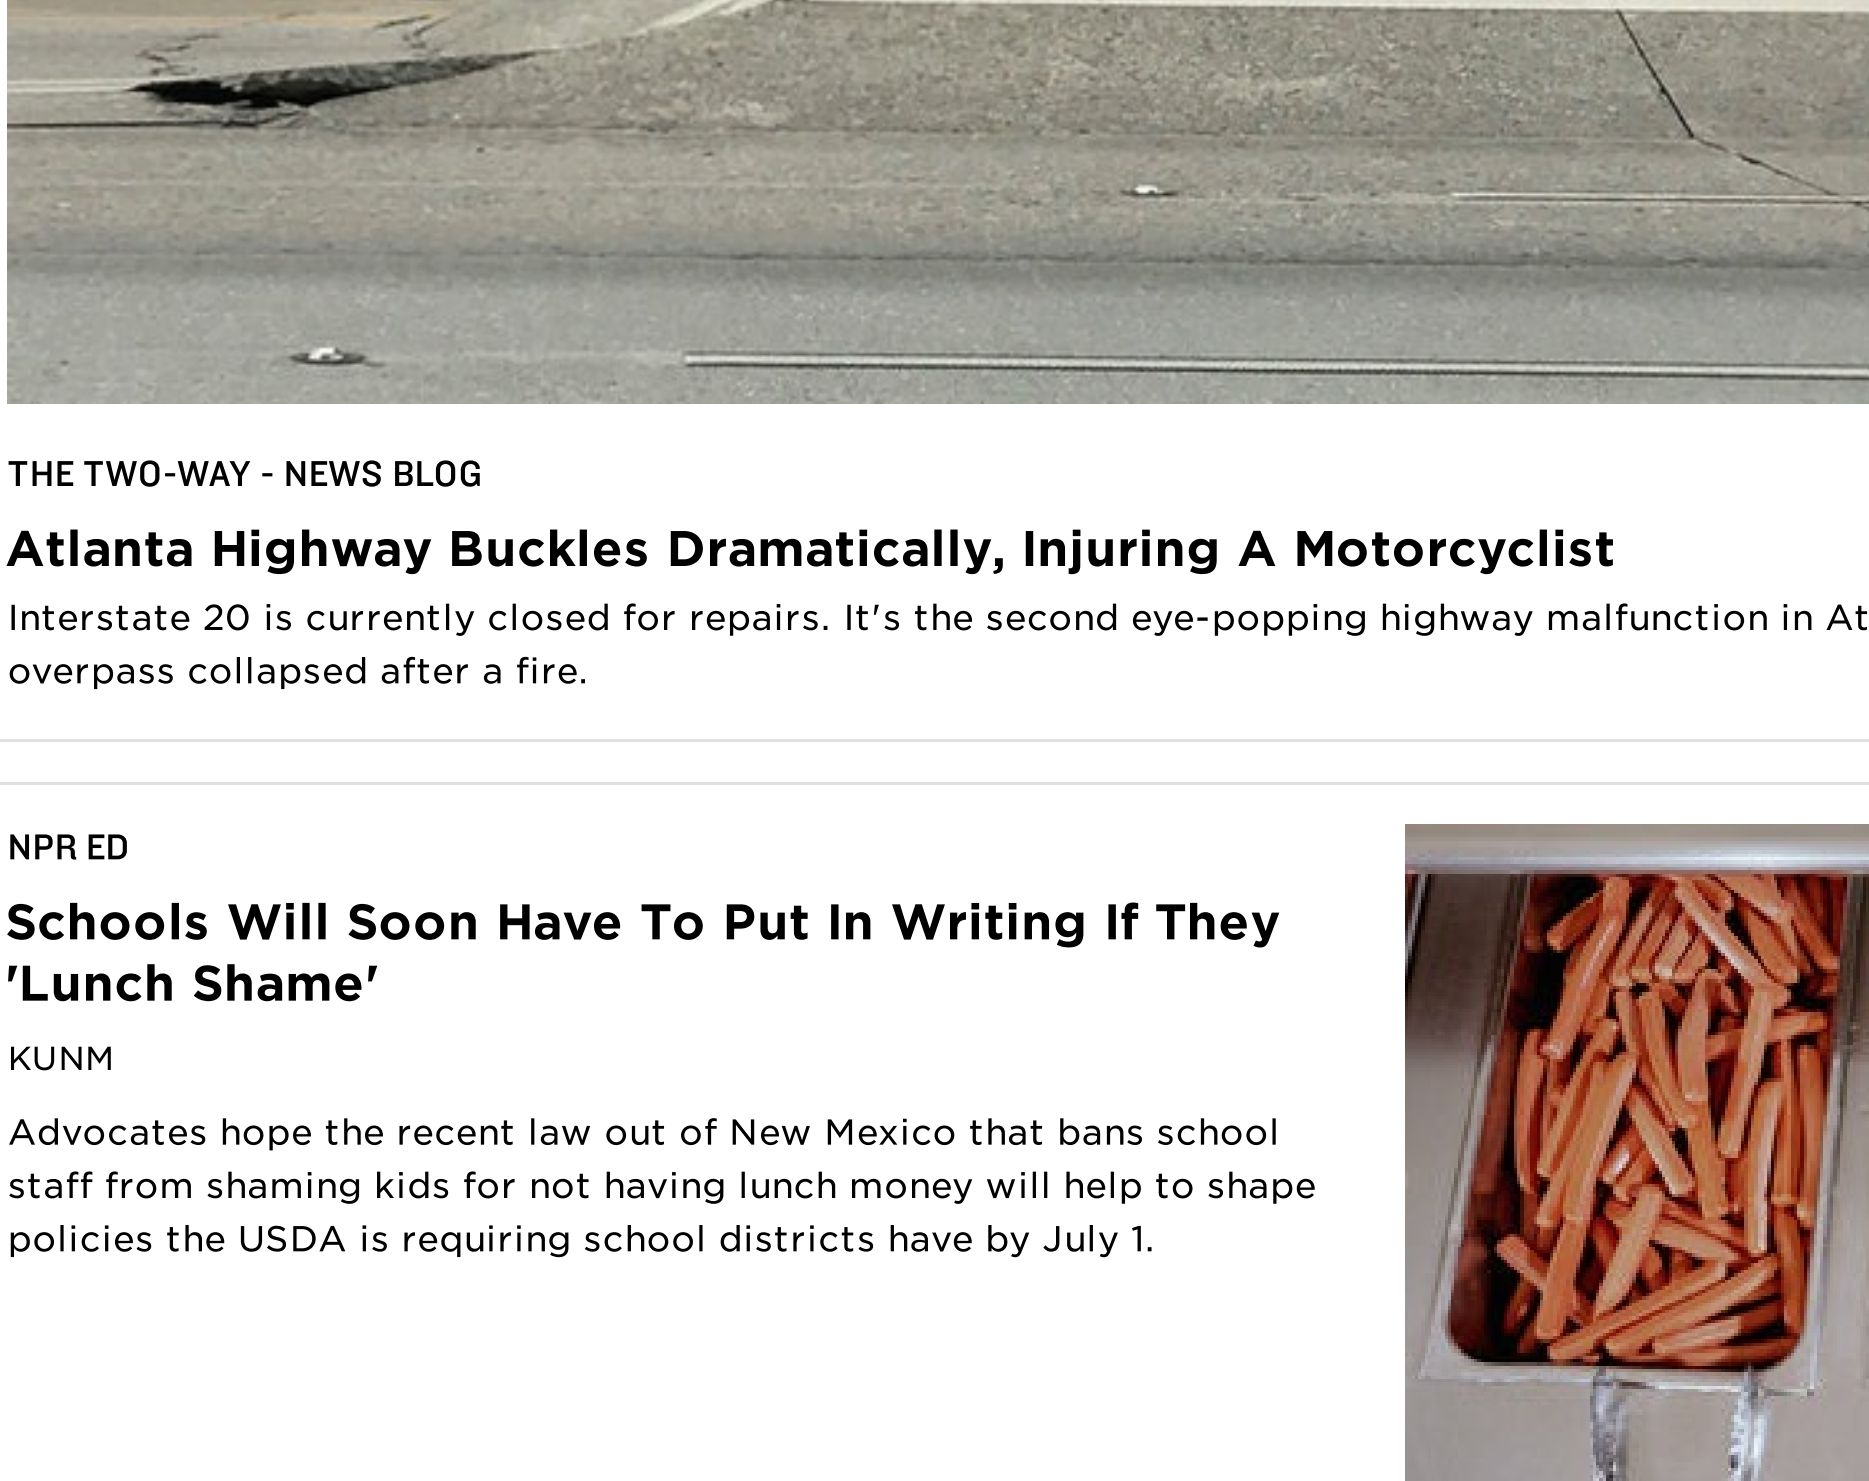

A 73-Year-Old Is Latest Victim Of Deadly Attacks On Mexican Journalists

The murder of Maximino Rodríguez Palacios in Baja California last week is the latest in a string of killings that have made the country one of the most dangerous in the world to report the news.

Listen · 3:53 Queue

Mexico Catches One Of Several Fugitive Former Governors After A Half-Year Hunt

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Atlanta Highway Buckles Dramatically, Injuring A Motorcyclist

Interstate 20 is currently closed for repairs. It's the second eye-popping highway malfunction in Atlanta in a month. In late March, an interstate overpass collapsed after a fire.

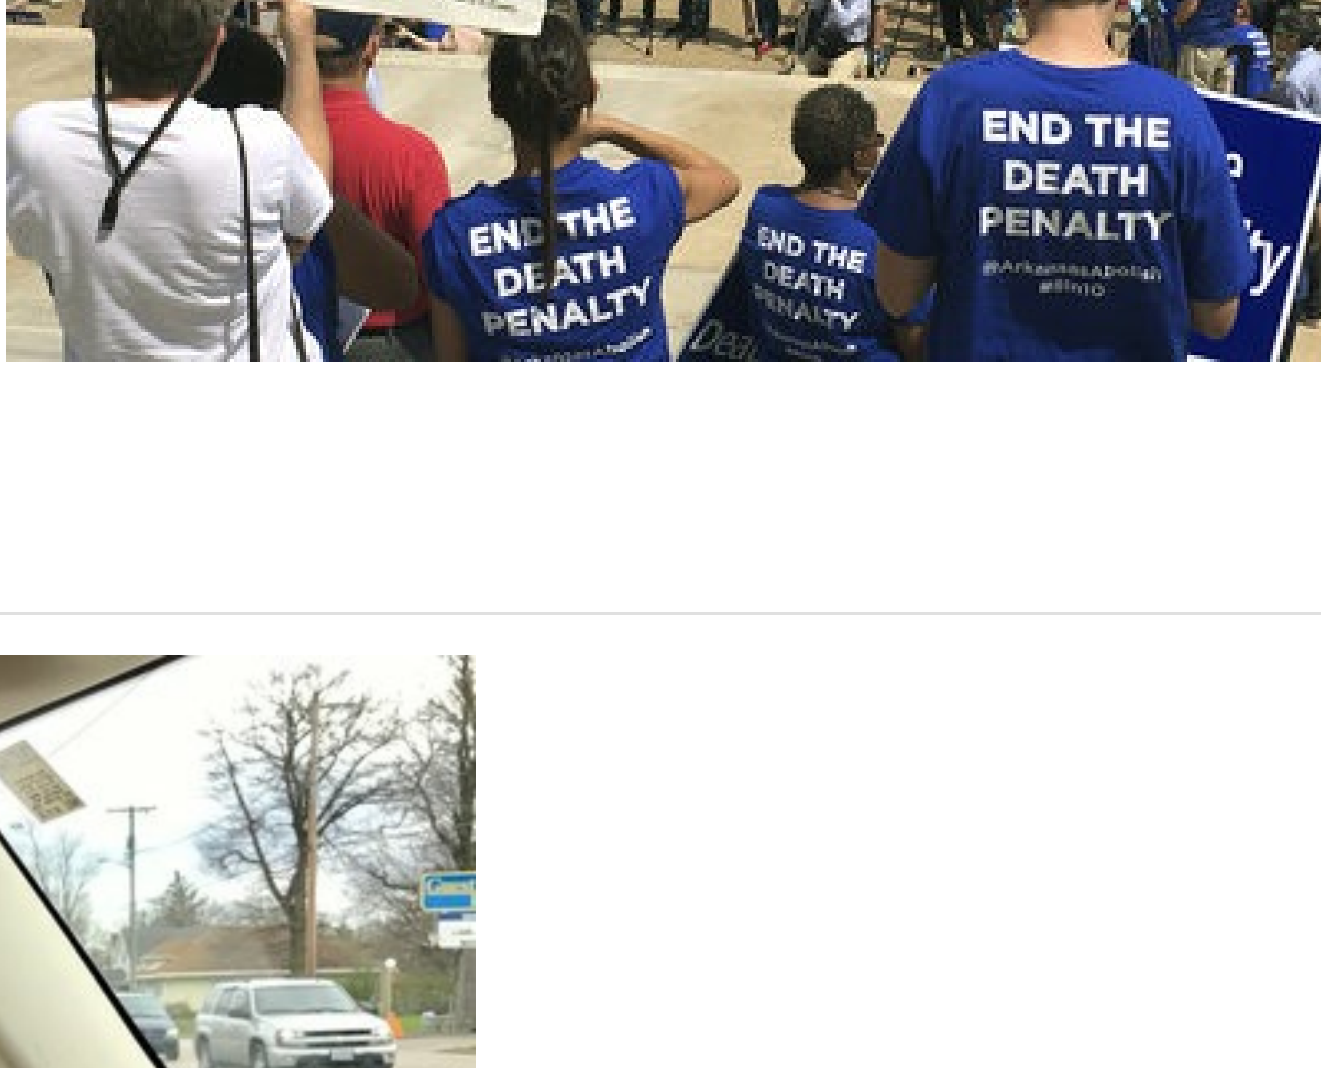

Eric Stigfus/Atlanta Journal Constitution

NPR ED

Schools Will Soon Have To Put In Writing If They 'Lunch Shame'

KUNM

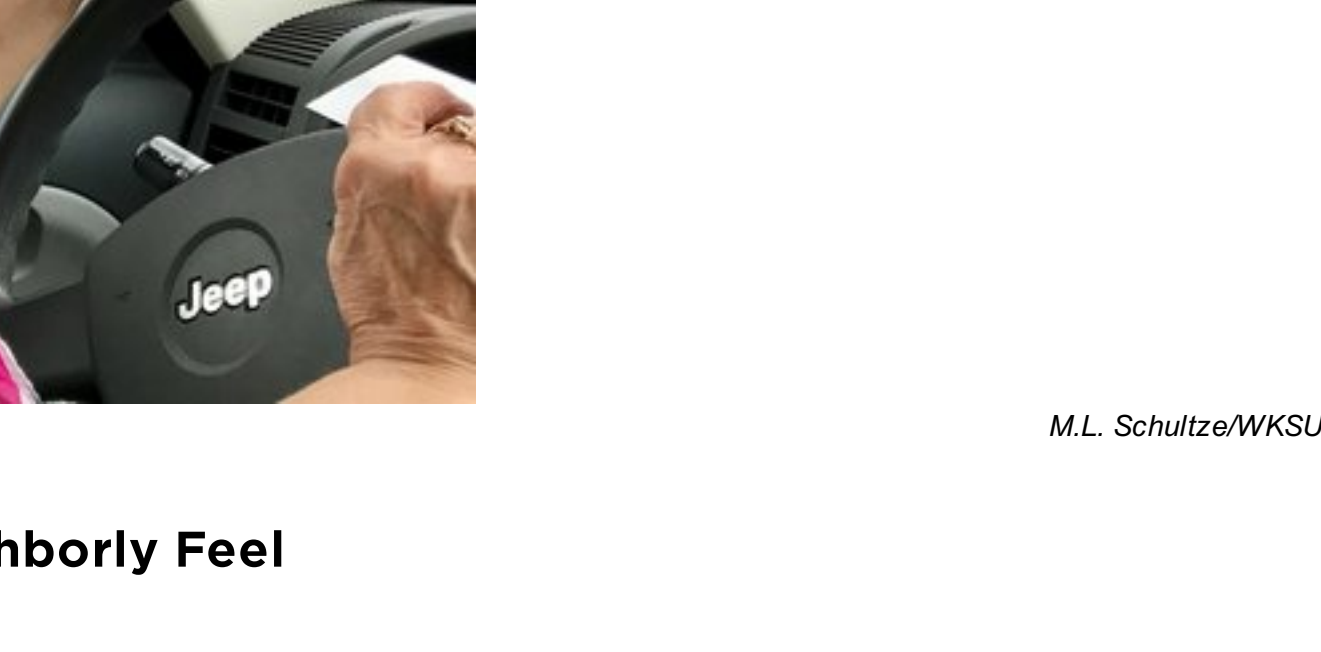

Advocates hope the recent law out of New Mexico that bans school staff from shaming kids for not having lunch money will help to shape policies the USDA is requiring school districts have by July 1.

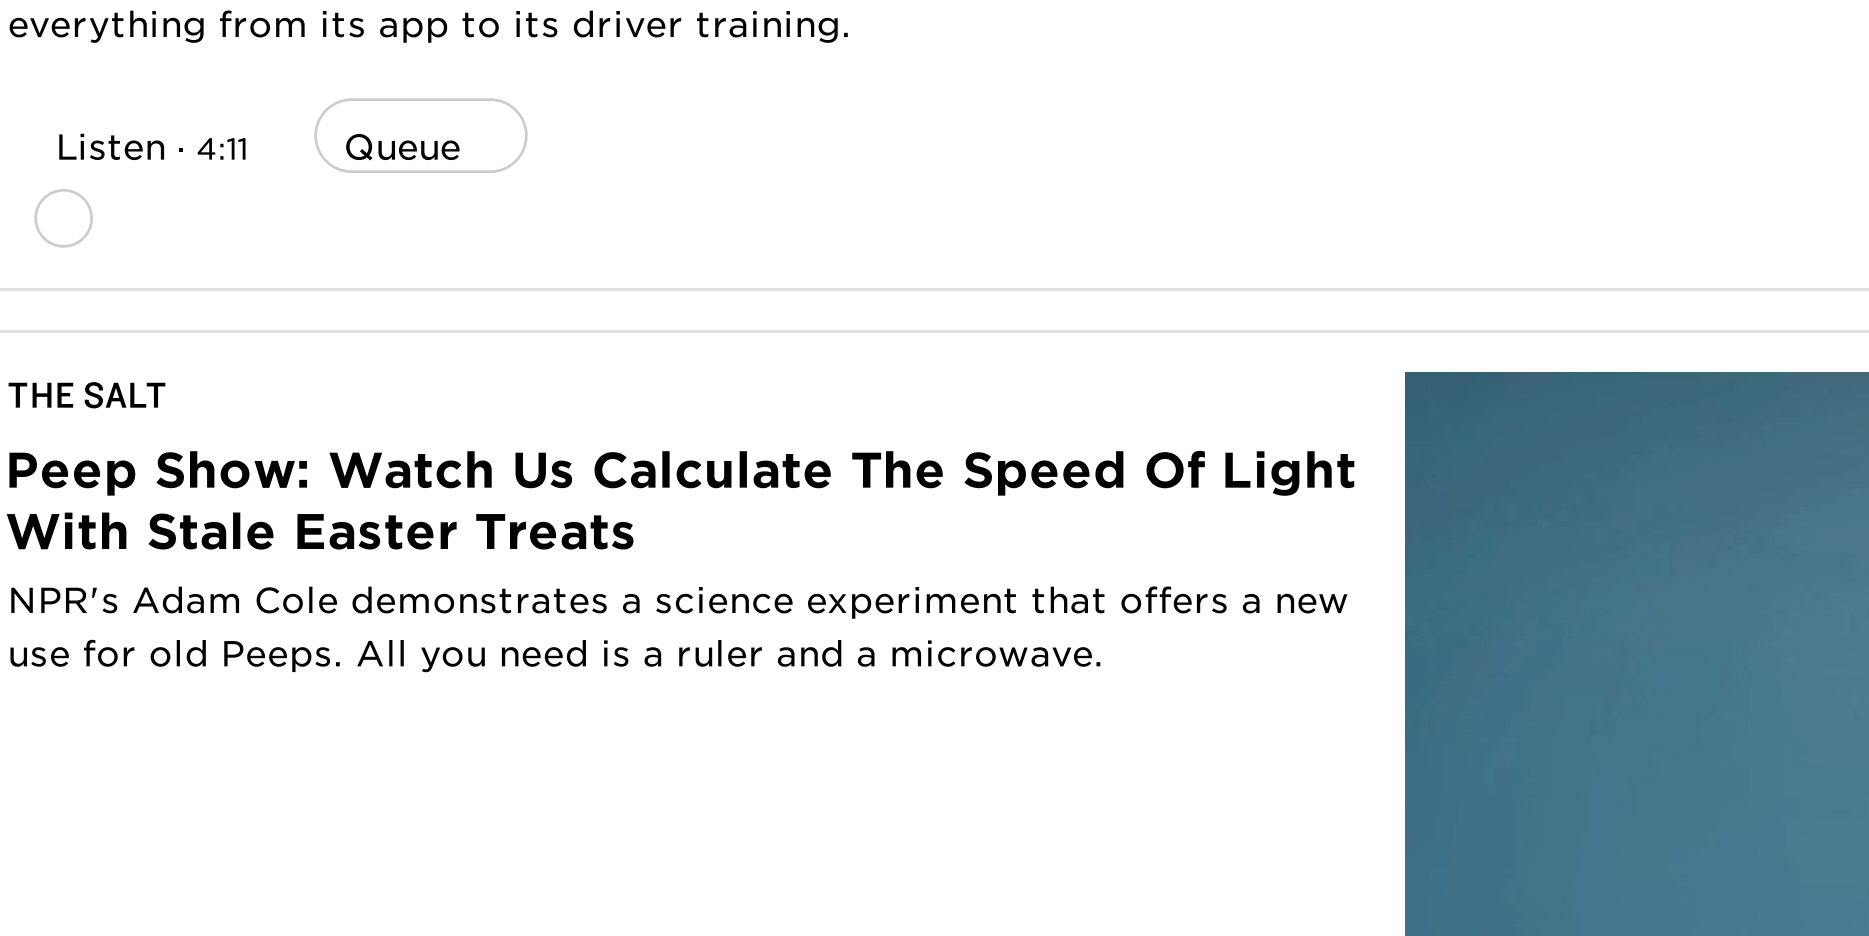

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

State's Push To Carry Out Executions Hits Another Roadblock In Arkansas

Arkansas had sought to execute eight men before its supply of a lethal injection drug expires. The state Supreme Court stayed the executions of two inmates set for Monday night.

Federal Court Blocks Executions Set For 11-Day Span

ALL TECH CONSIDERED

Ride Hailing In Rural America: Like Uber With A Neighborly Feel

WKSU

A small startup called Liberty Mobility Now is staking itself as the Uber of rural America. But to find its niche there, it has had to adapt everything from its app to its driver training.

Listen · 4:11 Queue

M.L. Schultze/WKSU

THE SALT

Peep Show: Watch Us Calculate The Speed Of Light With Stale Easter Treats

NPR's Adam Cole demonstrates a science experiment that offers a new use for old Peeps. All you need is a ruler and a microwave.

POLITICS

ACT UP At 30: Reinvigorated For Trump Fight

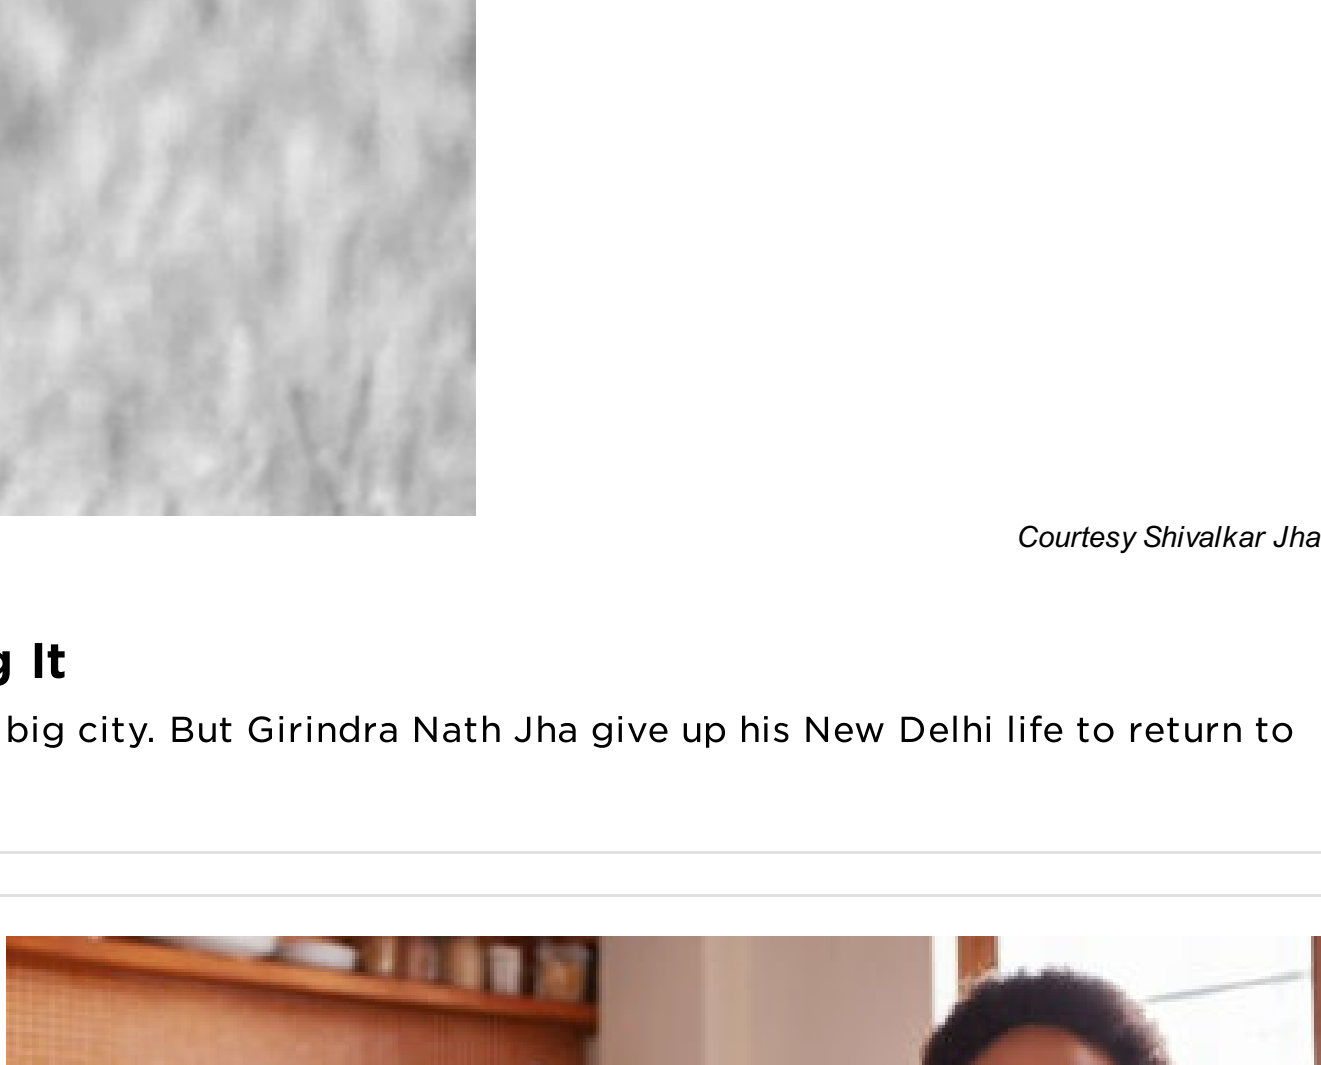

Veteran activists who helped make ACT UP and its affiliates a potent force in the fight against AIDS are now helping train activists opposed to the policies of the Trump administration.

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Pence Tells North Korea: 'The Era Of Strategic Patience Is Over'

"All options are on the table," U.S. Vice President Mike Pence said during his visit to South Korea, amid rising tensions with North Korea over its nuclear and ballistic missile program.

VIDEO: Why North Korea's Nuclear Program Keeps The World On Edge

GOATS AND SODA

Big City Escapee Is Living In A Mud Hut — And Loving It

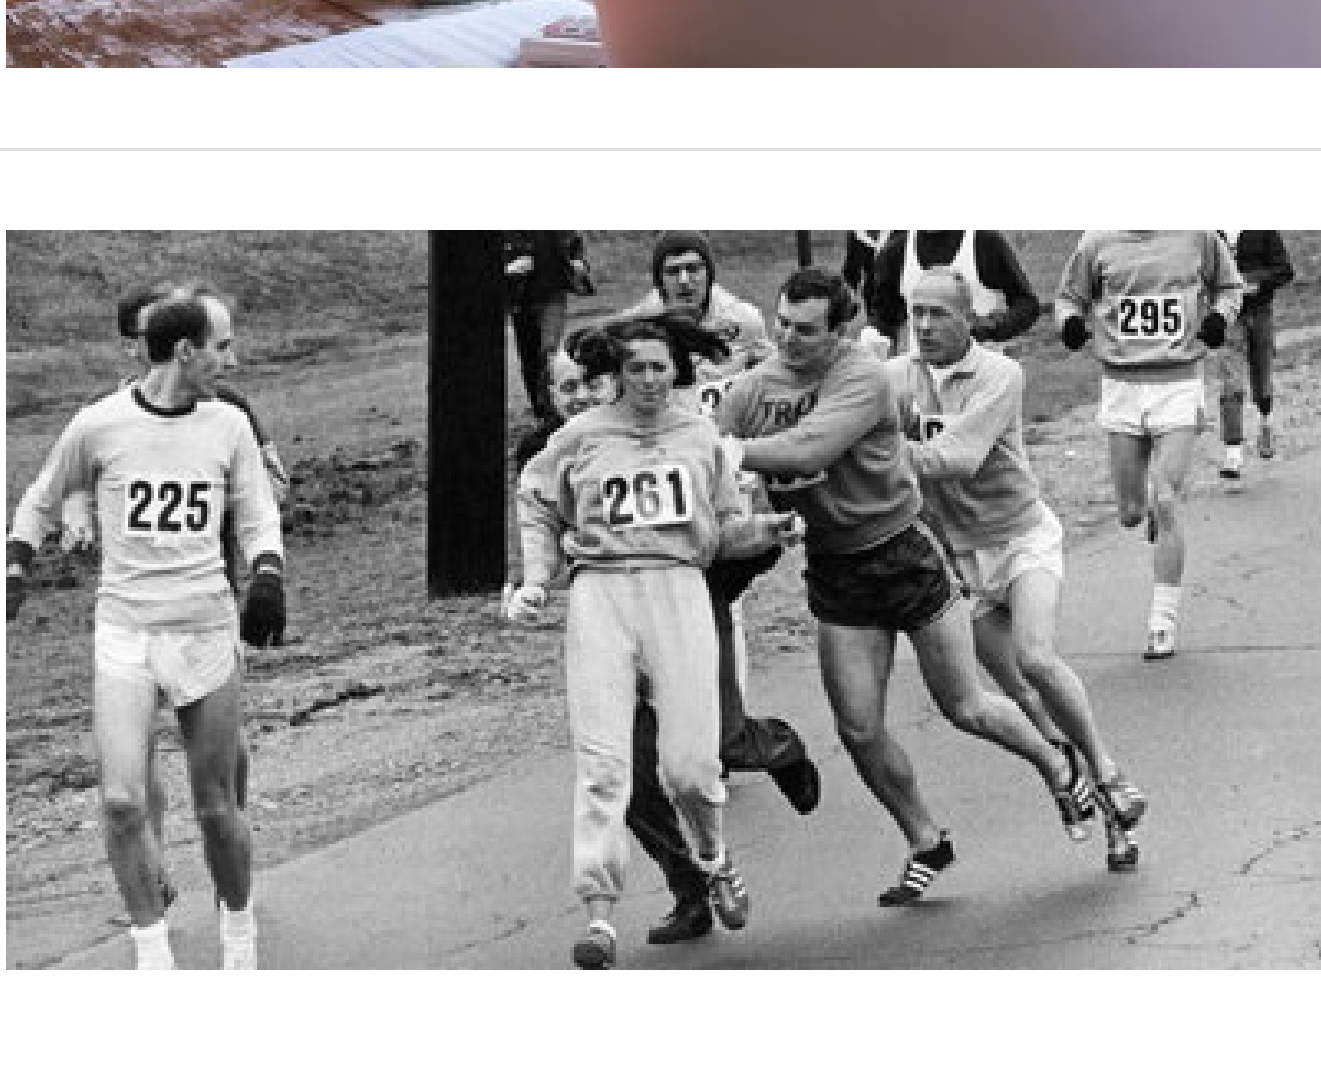

Most young people in the tiny Indian village of Chanka dream of life in the big city. But Girindra Nath Jha gave up his New Delhi life to return to his birthplace.

Courtesy Shivalkar Jha

13.7: COSMOS AND CULTURE

Why Hard Decisions Should Be Easy (But Aren't)

Hard decisions are hard for two reasons: because no single option clearly dominates the alternatives, and because we expect our choice to have significant consequences, says blogger Tania Lombrozo.

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

First Woman To Wear A Boston Bib Races Again, 50 Years Later

After Kathrine Switzer entered the marathon in 1967 — without telling organizers she was a woman — the race director tried to rip her numbers off. She finished anyway. This year, she was cheered on as she completed the marathon with a time of 4:44:31.

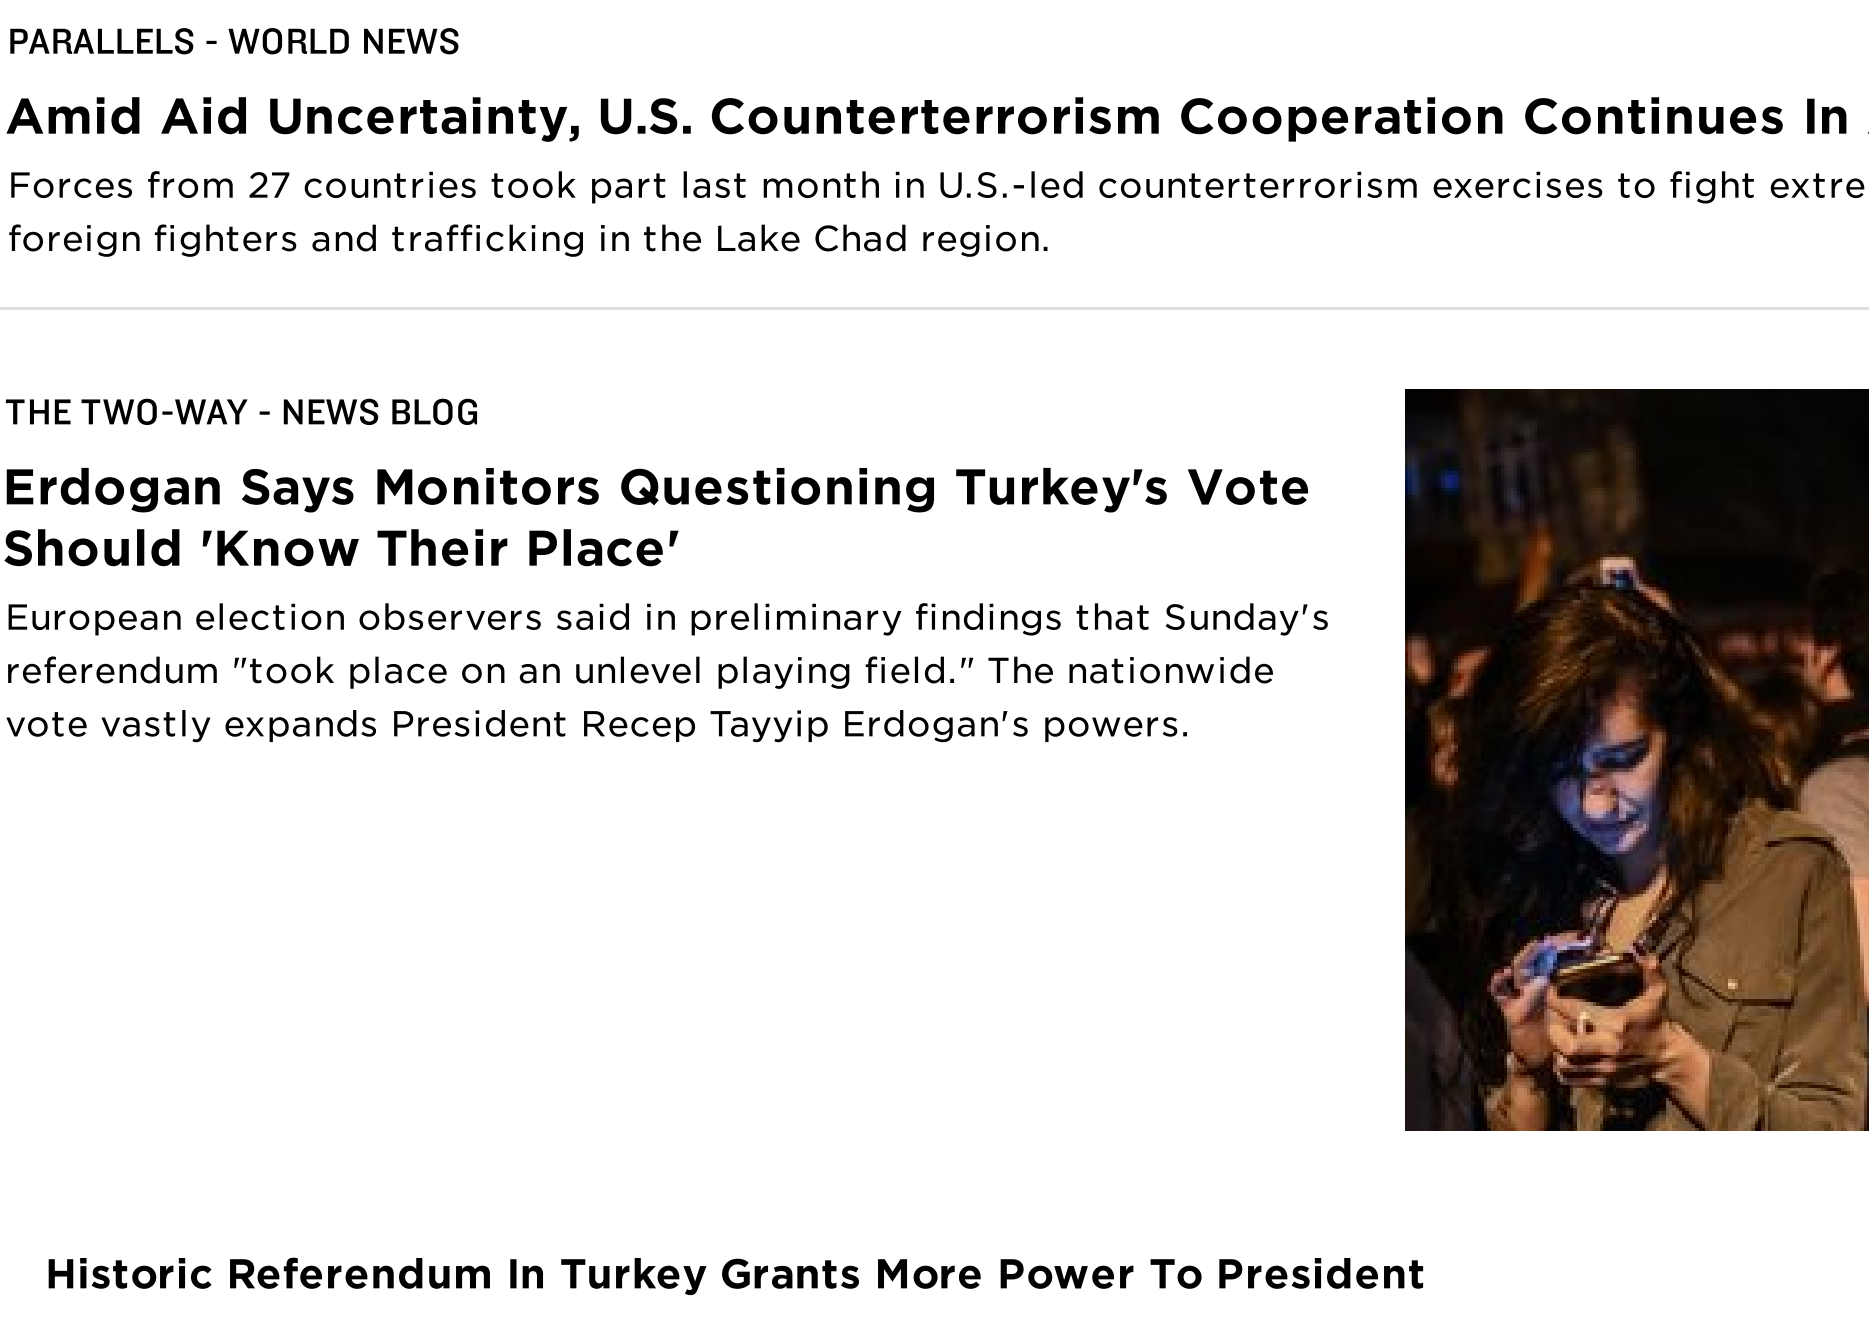

2 First-Time Boston Marathoners Emerge Victorious

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Cleveland Police Search For Suspect Who Posted Homicide Video On Facebook

The suspect, Steve Stephens, allegedly uploaded a video in which he fatally shoots an elderly man. Stephens also says he's killed more than a dozen other people. Police have not verified that claim.

PARALLELS - WORLD NEWS

Amid Aid Uncertainty, U.S. Counterterrorism Cooperation Continues In Africa

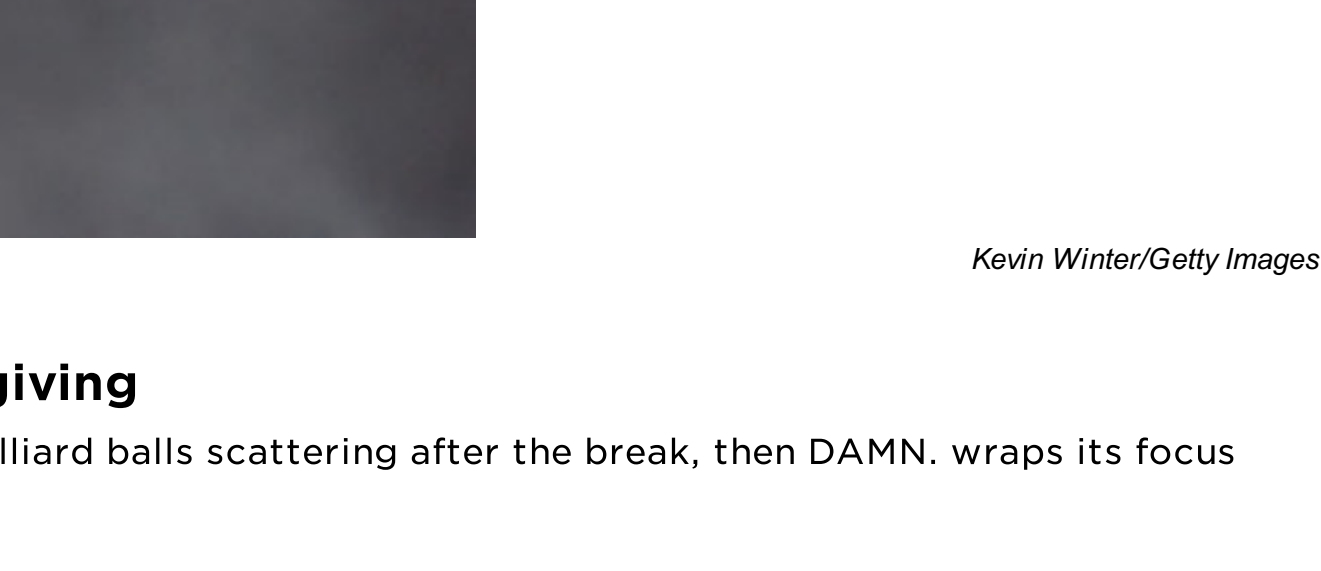

Forces from 27 countries took part last month in U.S.-led counterterrorism exercises to fight extremist violence by Boko Haram, the flow of foreign fighters and trafficking in the Lake Chad region.

Ofeibea Quist-Arcot/NPR

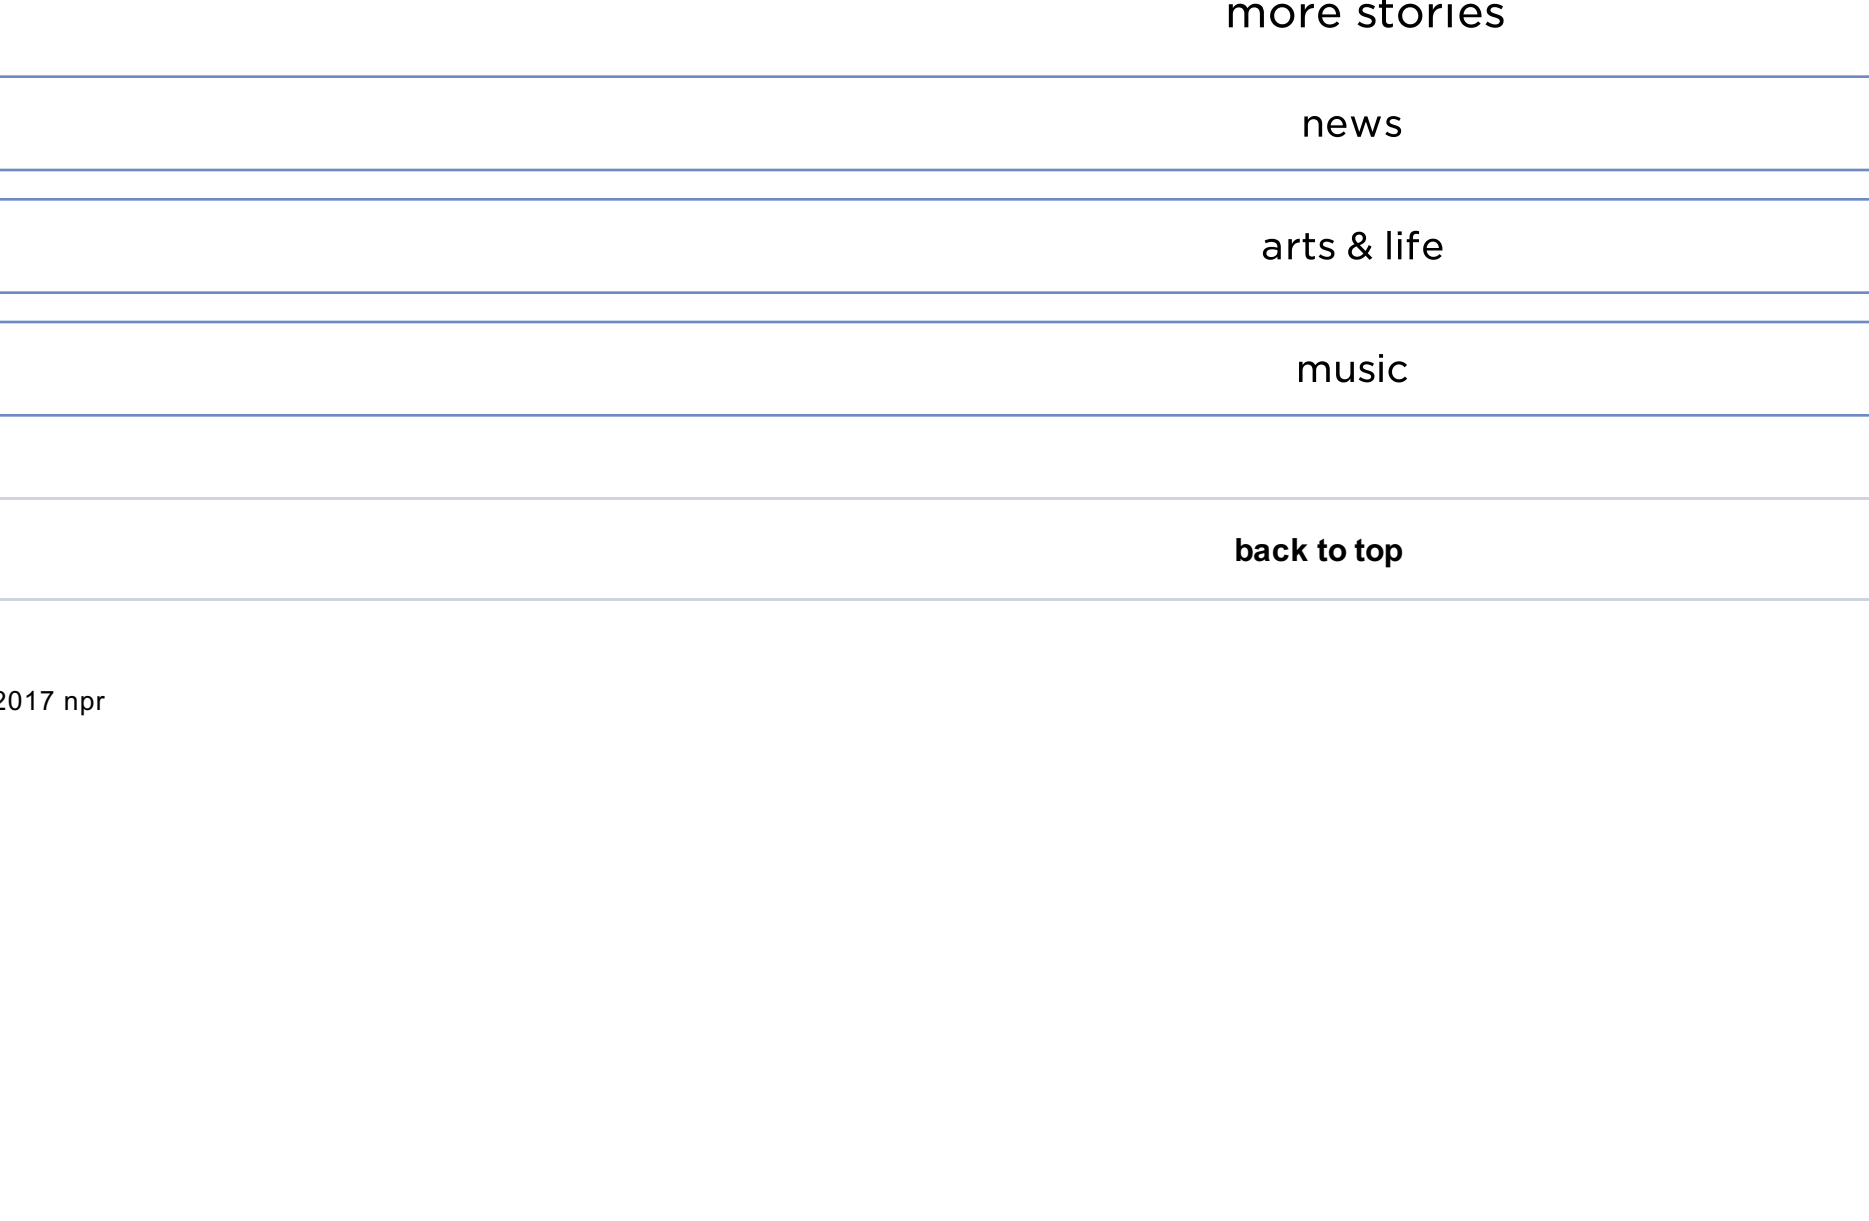

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Erdogan Says Monitors Questioning Turkey's Vote Should 'Know Their Place'

European election observers said in preliminary findings that Sunday's referendum "took place on an uneven playing field." The nationwide vote vastly expands President Recep Tayyip Erdogan's powers.

Historic Referendum In Turkey Grants More Power To President

MUSIC REVIEWS

Kendrick Lamar's 'DAMN.' Is Introspective And Unforgiving

If To Pimp a Butterfly, Lamar's ornate jazz-funk experiment, played like billiard balls scattering after the break, then DAMN. wraps its focus inward: tight and layered, like a bundle of rubber bands.

Kevin Winter/Getty Images

more stories

news

arts & life

music

back to top