

after Saoirse Ronan's First Coming of Age: Saoirse Ronan

Movie Review: 'A Quiet Passion' Dazzles Gradually

MUSIC INTERVIEWS

Siblings Gracie And Clyde Lawrence On Touring And The Meaning Of Home

The Lawrence siblings have been performing together since they were toddlers, but it was touring across the country in a van that helped them understand their relationship to home and each other.

Listen 1:50

Gracie and Clyde Lawrence

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney, 'One Of The Finest Men' In NFL History, Dies At 84

During Rooney's time steering the team his father founded, the Pittsburgh Steelers reached the heights of the NFL. Off the field, he also spearheaded efforts to diversify the league's hiring practices.

Dan Rooney/OTTDaily Images

U.S.

San Francisco Program Aims To Make Smaller Fines More Fair For Poor

KALW

When fines like parking tickets stack up, it's difficult for some people to pay their way out. So San Francisco created the Financial Justice Project to study the way fines affect the poor.

Listen 1:50

San Francisco/OTTDaily Images

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Canada's Government Introduces Bill To Legalize Recreational Marijuana

The measure would allow adults to possess, share and purchase marijuana, while also strengthening penalties for those who give or sell the products to youth.

Leafy Marijuana/OTTDaily Images

THE SALT

The Dark Side Of Easter: Foods Named For Judas Offer Taste Of Treachery

Judas, the apostle who betrayed Jesus, is the archvillain of Easter week (though he has his defenders). He also has an intriguing range of food and drink named after him — from cake to bread to beer.

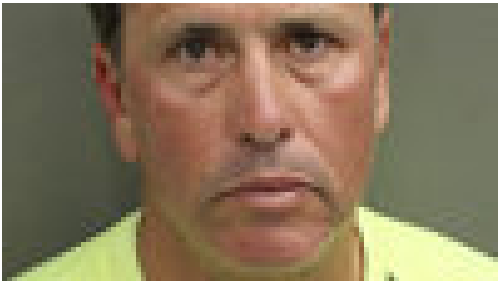

Photo by Michael P. Smith

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

U.S. Marshals Say They've Rounded Up 'The Last Of The Cocaine Cowboys'

Deputies Falcone, his brother and associates were indicted in 2011 for smuggling some 70 tons of cocaine into the U.S. His partners were caught and convicted, but Falcone remained free — until Wednesday.

AP

TELEVISION

To Get To 'SNL,' Comic Sasheer Zamata 'Followed The Fun'

FRESH AIR

Zamata says his path from beginner to working comic happened in the best possible way: "I just followed the things I was really interested in, and it turned out to be what I needed to do."

Listen 18:47

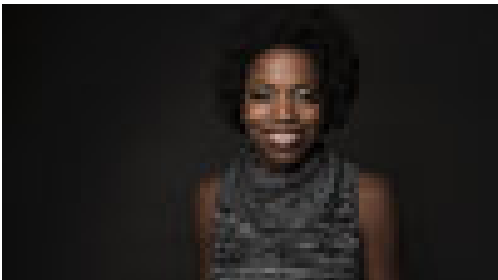

Photo: Justin Scharf/OTTDaily Images

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Eels May Use 'Magnetic Maps' As They Slither Across The Ocean

Eels sometimes swim thousands of miles from their birthplace in the Atlantic to rivers and lakes where they live. Researchers say the creatures might use the Earth's magnetic field to find their way.

Philippa Morgan/OTTDaily Images

CODE SWITCH

What We Know (And Don't Know) About 'Missing White Women Syndrome'

Social media scrutiny over a spate of missing persons cases involving black and Latina girls raised old concerns about whether such cases involving white women are more likely to receive news coverage.

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

PARALLELS - WORLD NEWS

Rohingya Fleeing Myanmar Describe Military Tactic Of Systematic Rape

Witnesses say Myanmar forces waged a six-month campaign of murder, arson and mass rape after Rohingya militants attacked border guards. The Muslim minority has long faced persecution in Myanmar.

Listen 6:31

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

POLITICS

George W. Bush Calls Foreign Aid A Moral And Security Imperative

President Bush dedicated billions to combat AIDS in Africa, and recently traveled to the continent. If nothing had been done about the pandemic during his time in office, he said, "I would've been ashamed."

Listen 4:58

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

OK Google, Burger King Hijacked Your Speakers ... And Failed Pretty Quickly

The fast-food chain launched an ad Wednesday meant to wake viewers' Google Home speakers and use them for a makeshift promo. Sadly for Burger King, it wasn't long before the play hit some speed bumps.

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

THE TWO-WAY - NEWS BLOG

Bashar Assad Tells AFP That Chemical Attack Was Western 'Fabrication'

The U.S. intelligence community is confident the Syrian president used the nerve agent sarin against civilians. Assad, in an interview with the wire service, claimed the evidence is all fake.

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

13.7: COSMOS AND CULTURE

Should Ethical Eaters Unite Around A Goal To Eat Fewer Animals?

There can be wisdom in uniting around ethical eating, rather than fighting about how many animal products we consume, says anthropologist Barbara J. King.

Photo: Michael P. Smith/OTTDaily Images

more stories

news >

arts & life >

music >

back to top

homepage

news

arts & life

music

programs

about

help

contact

terms of use

privacy

sponsorship choices

text-only

© 2017 npr