Apple's Cash Hoard Set to Top $250 Billion

Apple likely will report Tuesday that its cash hoard has topped a quarter of a trillion dollars—an unrivalled milestone that could ratchet up pressure on the tech giant to make splashier acquisitions or dole out more money to shareholders. 104

Hackers Ran Through Holes in Swift's Network

The payment-transfer network has left banks largely responsible for their own cyberdefense. In the past year, a spate of cyberattacks has penetrated banks along Swift's less-defended perimeter, shaking confidence in the network used by banks for cross-border transactions.
