As Health Bill Lingers, Trump and Ryan Are Put on the Spot

By THOMAS KAPLAN and ROBERT PEARL

- With Congress about to take a recess, no vote is scheduled for the revised health care bill even as Speaker Paul D. Ryan tries for a third time to rally his party around one of President Trump's priority items.

- Representative Fred Upton of Michigan, an influential voice on health care, was the latest Republican to say he would not vote for the current version of the bill.
