First 100 Days

After a tumultuous start, Trump hopes for a smoother agenda on jobs, taxes

But the next few months will not get any easier for the president. While Republicans have control of Congress and set the agenda, they have few opportunities to pass partisan priorities before turning to a series of complicated subjects that require bipartisan action.

Trump invigorates, enchants crowd at Pennsylvania rally

On his 100th day in office, the president had fun in "wonderful, beautiful" Harrisburg, where it felt like last year again with lusty cheers and smiling faces for him. He bashed the bad guys of the media and Hollywood and the swamp he'd just left. And he promised jobs and greatness.

* How cable news jugged Trump's rally and the correspondents' dinner

Analysis

Fox News shows how not to interview Trump on tax reform

The president claimed, "I'm going to end up paying more than I pay right now in taxes." But his interviewer didn't press for clarification that is needed because the public has yet to see his tax returns.
