The End of the Australian Dream? By LISA PRYOR When you have a nation full of people trying to get to the top, eventually most of the population is forced to run just to keep up. Comments Swim By TAHRIA SHEATHER, GUGLIELMO MATTIOLI and MAUREEN TOWEY Today we launch NYTAustralia, an expansion of our coverage that offers the best of our journalism for our audience in the region.

Some in Australia worry about the risk of being drawn into a conflict that forces it to side with either the United States, its military ally, or China, its biggest trading partner.

The $125 hourly labor cost you pay to service a 2h car adds up to six-figure salaries for auto mechanics. But a huge shortage of qualified technicians has auto dealers taking action. 3h Linda and Laura Benanti will bring their delightfully sparring relationship, as well as some of their favorite songs, to audiences in a cabaret show, "The Story Goes On." A Queens man is memorializing his lifelong friend, a plumber and a fellow Mets fan, by flushing his cremated remains into the pipes of baseball stadiums across the country. 5h Texas police fatally shot a 15-year-old boy who was a passenger in a car. The police in a Dallas suburb were responding to a call reporting young people drinking. 6h "Casting JonBenet," a nonfiction movie pegged to the 1996 murder of JonBenet Ramsey, is "vacuous" and at some points "vulgar in the extreme," our critic writes. Because every person has a unique "odorprint," 7h researchers are perfecting machines that can that sniff out signs of disease in breath, blood and urine. West Virginia's governor, Jim Justice, is an "unusual Democrat": A billionaire businessman, he is facing off with Republicans but distancing himself from the national party. 8h John A. Paulson, once a star of the hedge fund industry, saw steep losses in 2016. His firm, Paulson & Company, manages just under $10 billion, down from $36 billion in 2011. Michael Moore's (mostly) one-man show "The Terms of My Surrender," which takes aim at President Donald J. Trump, arrives on Broadway this summer. 10h In Wales, interest has surged in the library of William Gladstone, Britain's 19th-century Liberal prime minister. The library's director believes it is a reaction to populism. 11h As early as Tuesday, television and movie writers could go on strike, creating the first major work stoppage in the entertainment industry in a decade. "Warhol Capote," a play based on exchanges 12h between Andy Warhol and Truman Capote in the 1970s, will come to the American Repertory Theater in September. Ryan Seacrest was named Kelly Ripa's 12h "Live" co-host on Monday, bringing stability to an important ABC morning show as it prepares for new competition. A recent review of studies suggests that, for 13h initial treatment of lower back pain, spinal manipulation by a chiropractor seems to be as effective as more medical therapies. Goop, Gwyneth Paltrow's digital lifestyle brand, is teaming up with Condé Nast to create a quarterly print magazine of the same name. 14h In a continuing debate about relievers, one manager said that if baseball were played in a nonemotional environment, "I think we would flush that saves stat down the toilet." A call for donations to buy a sailboat for the 17h Tate group's departing director angered employees and highlighted concern over widening inequality in Britain. 20h Dubai introduced its own font, which the crown prince described as a powerful tool for DUBAI self-expression even as the city censors the news media and criticism of the government.
